A WORD TO MY DEAR STUDENTS

It gives me great pleasure in presenting the Students' Support Material to all KV students of class X.

The material has been prepared keeping in mind your needs when you are preparing for final exams and wish to revise and practice questions or when you want to test your ability to complete the question paper in the time allotted or when you come across a question while studying that needs an immediate answer but going through the text book will take time or when you want to revise the complete concept or idea in just a minute or try your hand at a question from a previous CBSE Board exam paper or the Competitive exam to check your understanding of the chapter or unit you have just finished. This material will support you in any way you want to use it.

A team of dedicated and experienced teachers with expertise in their subjects has prepared this material after a lot of exercise. Care has been taken to include only those items that are relevant and are in addition to or in support of the text book. This material should not be taken as a substitute to the NCERT text book but it is designed to supplement it.

The Students' Support Material has. all the important aspects required by you; a design of the question paper, syllabus, all the units/chapters or concepts in points, mind maps and information in tables for easy reference, sample test items from every chapter and question papers for practice along with previous years Board exam question papers.

I am sure that the Support Material will be used by both students and teachers and I am confident that the material will help you perform well in your exams.

Happy learning!

FOREWORD

The Students' Support Material is a product of an in-house academic exercise undertaken by our subject teachers under the supervision of subject expert at different levels to provide the students a comprehensive, yet concise, learning support tool for consolidation of your studies. It consists of lessons in capsule form, mind maps, concepts with flow charts, pictorial representation of chapters wherever possible, crossword puzzles, question bank of short and long answer type questions with previous years' CBSE question papers.

The material has been developed keeping in mind latest CBSE curriculum and question paper design. This material provides the students a valuable window on precise information and it covers all essential components that are required for effective revision of the subject.

In order to ensure uniformity in terms of content, design, standard and presentation of the material, it has been fine tuned at KVS HQRS level.

I hope this material will prove to be a good tool for quick revision and will serve the purpose of enhancing students' confidence level to help them perform better. Planned study blended with hard work, good time management and sincerity will help the students reach the pinnacle of success.

Best of Luck.

Short Answer Questions

Q.1:- What was the importance of the Indian trade for the British?

Trade Surplus – Britain had a Trade Surplus with Indian. Britain used this Surplus to balance its trade deficit with other countries.

Home Charges – Britain's trade Surplus in India also helped to pay the so called home charges that included private remittance by British officials and traders, interest payments on India's external debt and pensions of British officials in India.

Major Supplier of cotton – India remained a major supplier of raw cotton to British which was required to feed the cotton textile industry in Britain.

Supplier if indentured workers – Many indentured workers from Bihar, U.P., central India migrated to other countries to work in mines and plantations.

Q.2:- How did Bretton Woods System Work?

- The international monetary system is the system linking national currencies and monetary system.

The Briton woods system was based on fixed exchange rates. In this system the national currencies were pegged to the dollar at a fixed exchange rate.

The Bretton woods system inaugurated an era of unprecedented growth of trade and incomes of the western industrial nations.

Q.3: - What were the effects of the British Government's decision to abolish the Corn Laws?

Food could be imported into Britain more cheaply than it would be produced within the country.

British agriculture was unable to compete with imports. Vast Areas of land were left uncultivated and people started migrating to cities or other countries.

As food prices fell, consumption in Britain rose. Faster industrial growth in Britain also led to higher incomes and therefore more food imports.

Around the world in Eastern Europe, Russia, America and Australia land were cleared and food production expanded to meet the British demand.

Q.2: - What were the effects of the Great Depression on the Indian economy?

The economic depression immediately affected Indian Trade, as India's exports and imports nearly halved between 1928-1934

Agriculture prices fell sharply, but the colonial government refused to reduce revenues. Peasants producing for the world markets were worst hit.

Raw jute was produced, processed in the industries to make gunny bags. Its exports collapsed and prices fell by 60% peasants of Bengal fell into debt traps.

Peasants used up their savings mortgaged lands and sold their precious jewellery to meet their expense.

Q.3: - 19th century indenture has been described as a „New system of slavery“. Explain.

- In the 19th century, hundreds of thousands of Indians and Chinese labourers went to work on plantations in mines and in road and railway construction projects around the world.
 - In India, indentured labourers were hired under contracts which promised return travel to India after they had worked for five years on plantations.
 - Gradually in India cottage industries declined, land rents rose, land was cleared of mines and plantations. All this affected the lives of the poor. They failed to pay their rents, became indebted, and were forced to migrate in search of work.
 - The main destinations of Indian indentured migrants were the Caribbean islands, Trinidad, Guyana, Surinam, Mauritius, Fiji and Ceylon and Malaya.
- Recruitment was done by an agent engaged by employers and paid a small commission.

Q.4: - “One important feature of the US economy in the 1920’s was mass production.” Explain.

A well-known pioneer of mass production was the car manufacturer, ‘Henry Ford’.

- He adopted an assembly line technique of a slaughter house.
He realized that the ‘Assembly line’ method would allow a faster and cheaper way of producing vehicles.
- This method forced workers to repeat a single task mechanically and continuously
- This was a way of increasing output per worker by speeding up the pace of work.
- This doubling of daily wages were considered ‘best cost – cutting decision’ he had ever made.

Q.5: - „the silk routes are a good example of vibrant pre-modern trade and cultural Links between distant parts of the world“ Explain

Historians have identified several silk routes, over land and by sea, knitting together vast regions of Asia, and linking Asia with Europe and North Africa.

They have been known to have existed since before the Christian era and thrived almost till the fifteenth century.

Chinese pottery also travelled the same route, as did textiles and spices from India and Southeast Asia. In return, precious metals—gold and silver—flowed from Europe to Asia

Q.6: -Why did the Europeans flee to America in the 19th century?

- Poverty and hunger were widespread in Europe.
- Overcrowded cities and wide spread deadly diseases.
- Religious persecution

Q. 7: -What was the impact of the Great Depression of 1929 on jute producers of Bengal?

They grew raw jute that was processed in factories for export in the form of gunny bags.

As gunny exports collapsed, the price of raw jute crashed more than 60 per cent.

Peasants who borrowed in the hope of better times or to increase output in the hope of higher incomes faced ever lower prices, and fell deeper and deeper into debt.

Q. 8 : - What did the G-77 countries want to gain from the NIEO?

- Real control over their natural resources,
- More development assistance,
- Fairer prices for raw materials,
- Better access for their manufactured goods in the developed countries markets.

CHAPTER-4

THE AGE OF INDUSTRIALIZATION

Hand Labour and Steam Power	Age of Indian Textiles- Factories Come Up	Small Scale Industries Predominated
------------------------------------	--	--

IMPORTANT CONCEPTS OF THE LESSON

An association of craftsmen or merchants following same craft to protect
The members interest and supervise the standard of the work.

Tanning. Convert raw hide into leather by soaking in liquid containing tannic acid.

Food processing. Technique of chopping and mixing food for making jam, juices, etc.
Victorian Britain. Britain during the reign of Queen Victoria.

Brewery. A place where beer etc. is brewed commercially. Brewing is a process of infusion, boiling and fermentation.

Vagrant. A person without a settled home or regular work.

Bourgeois. The upper middle class.

Gomastha .An Indian word meaning an agent, a middle man between the merchant

And weavers.

Stapler. A person who staples or sorts wool according to its fibre.

INDUSTRIALISATION

Production of goods with the help of machines in factories
The first industrialized Nation-Britain

Features

Handmade goods to machine made goods in factories, cottage to factory, large scale production, started in England in later parts of 18th Century. In course of time, it affected all systems of production. Orient. Countries to the east of Mediterranean Sea usually referring to Asia.

BEFORE INDUSTRIAL REVOLUTION

PROTO-INDUSTRIALISATION

Production in 17th century, artisans worked for merchants to produce goods, artisans took raw material from merchants for production. Their cottages functioned as factories.

Association of producers, trained craft people maintained control over production, restricted entry of new traders .Coming of factories

COMING UP OF FACTORIES

Early factories in England came up by the 1730s.

First symbol of new era-cotton mill Many factories sprang up in England

A series of inventions in carding, twisting, spinning and rolling.

THE PACE OF INDUSTRIAL CHANGE

Cotton and iron and steel industries were the most dynamic industries.

New industries could not displace traditional ones Technological changes occurred slowly

Steam engine invented by James Watt had no buyers for years.

New technologies were slow to be accepted.

HAND LABOUR AND STEAM POWER

In Victorian Britain there was no shortage of human labour.
In many industries the demand for labour was seasonal.

Range of products could be produced only with hand labour.
Demand for intricate design.
Upper classes preferred things produced by hand.

LIFE OF THE WORKER

Abundance of labour affected the life of workers badly.
Labour was seasonal.

Fear of unemployment made workers hostile to new technology

Women labourers protested against the introduction of spinning jenny.
Introduction of railways opened greater opportunities.

INDUSTRIALISATION IN THE COLONIES

Textile industry was the Centre of industrialization in India.

AGE OF INDIAN TEXTILES

Finer varieties of cotton from India for export.
A vibrant sea trade operated through pre-colonial ports.

WHAT HAPPENED TO WEAVERS?

East India Company appointed Igomasthas —to collect supply from weavers.
Weavers lost bargaining power and lost lands for settling loans.

MANCHESTER COMES TO INDIA

By 1950s, India began to import Manchester cotton from Britain.
With Manchester import Indian export and local market declined.
Supply of raw cotton in India decreased.
Weavers were forced to buy cotton at high prices.

FACTORIES COME UP

Industries were set up in different regions.
First cotton mill came in Bombay in 1854.
1855 the first jute mill in Bengal.
1830s-1840s Dwarakanath Tagore setup six-point stock companies in Bengal.
Capital was accumulated through other trade network.
Till the First World War European managing agencies in fact controlled large sectors of Indian industries.

WHERE DID THE WORKERS COME FROM?

Most of the workers came from Indian villages.

PECULIARITIES OF INDUSTRIAL GROWTH

Early Indian cotton mills made coarse cotton yarn.

During the First World War Manchester imports to India declined. Indian factories supplied goods for war needs.

SMALL SCALE INDUSTRIES PREDOMINATED

Most of the Industries were located in Bengal and Bombay. A small portion of total industrial labour worked in factories. Use of fly shuttle increased handicraft.

MARKET FOR GOODS

Advertisements helps in creating new consumers.

Advertisements appear in : Newspaper

Magazine

Street walls

Labels

Calendars

AT A GLANCE

Trade guilds were association of producers that trained craft people, maintained control over production, regulated competition and price.

A Stapler was a person who stapled or sorted wool according to its fibre. Richard Arkwright set up the first cotton mill in England

Fear of unemployment made workers hostile to new technology.

Gomasthas were paid servants who would supervise weavers, collect supplies and examine the quality of cloth.

Fly shuttle was a mechanical device used for weaving.

A jobber was an old trusted worker employed by the industrialists to get new recruits. The first cotton mill was set up in Bombay in 1854.

„Proto Industrialization“ meant large scale production of goods for international market, not based on the modern factory system.

SHORT ANSWERS TYPE QUESTIONS

Q.1 - : What was the result of First World War on Indian industries?

First World War gave a great boost to the Indian Industries because of the following reasons -

The British mills became busy with the production of War materials so all its exports to India virtually stopped.

Suddenly Indian mills got clearance to produce different articles for the home market.

The Indian factories were called upon to supply various war related materials like- Jute bags, clothes for uniforms, tents and leather boots for the forces and so on.

Q.2 - : Who was a jobber? Explain his functions.

Industrialists usually employed jobbers to get new recruits. Very often the Jobber was an old and trusted worker.

He got people from his village ensured them jobs, helped them to settle in the city and provided them money in time of crisis.

Jobbers became persons with authority and power. He began demanding money and gifts for the favour he did and started controlling the lives of workers.

Q.3 - : What were the problems of Indian weavers at the early 19th century?

The Indian weavers had to face many problems such as

Shortage of raw material – as raw cotton exports from India increased the Price of raw cotton shot up. Weavers in India were starved of supplies and forced to buy raw cotton at higher prices.

Clashes with Gomasthas- the Gomasthas acted arrogantly and punished weavers for delays in supply. So the weavers clashed with them.

System of Advances- the British started the system of advances to regularize the supply. The weavers eagerly took the advances in a hope to earn more but they failed to do so. They even started losing small plots of land which they had earlier cultivated.

Q.4 - : What does the cover picture indicate on the famous book "Dawn of the century,,?"

The music book published by E.T. Paul had a picture on the cover page announcing the Dawn of the Century

There is an angel of progress, bearing the flag of the new century and is

Gently perched on a wheel with wings symbolizing time.

The fight is taking into the future.

Floating about behind her are the sign of progress- Railway, Camera, Machines, Printing press and factory.

Q5 .What steps were taken by the East India Company to control the market of Cotton and silk goods?

Appointment of Gomasthas -Britishers appointed paid servants called the Gomasthas to supervise weavers, collect supplies and examine the quality of cloth.

Introducing advance or loan system .British wanted to prevent weavers from dealing with other buyers' .Weavers were given loan to purchase raw materials for their production.

Those who took loan had to hand over the cloth only to gomasthas.

Q 6.Why did merchants turn to countryside, rather than setting up of business in towns?

Demand for goods have increased since the European powers had acquired colonies and sold their goods in their colonies.

But merchants could not expand production with in town because the urban crafts and trade guilds were very powerful.

Rulers granted different guilds the monopoly rights to produce and trade in specific products.

LONG ANSWER TYPE QUESTIONS

Q.1 - : Explain the main features of Proto –Industrialization?

Main features of Proto Industrialization-

Production was not based on factories.

Large scale home based production for international market.

Merchants moved to country side and supplied money for artisans to produce for international market.

It provided alternative source of income.

Income from pro-industrial production supplemented their shrinking income from cultivation.

Helped in fuller use of their family labour resources.

Close relationship developed between the towns and country side.

Q.2 - : How did the British market expand their goods in India?

Advertisement of product – Advertisement makes products appear desirable and necessary. They try to shape the minds of people and create new needs.

During the industrial age, advertisements have played a major role in expanding the market for products.

Putting labels on the cloth bundles – The labels were needed to make the Place of manufacture and the name of the company familiar to the buyer. When buyers saw MADE IN MANCHESTER written in bold on a label they would feel confident about buying the clothes.

Images of Indian Gods gave approval to the goods being sold. Images of Krishna and Sarasvati were intended to make the manufacture from a foreign land appear somewhat familiar to the Indian People.

Printing Calendars to popularize their products: Unlike newspapers and magazines, calendars were used even by people who could not read. They were hung in the tea shops and in poor people's homes, just as much as in offices and in middle class houses.

Q.3" - : The Industrial Revolution was a mixed Blessing „.Explain? Blessing of the Industrial Revolution –

Production by machines helped to meet the increasing need of the growing population

Improved means of transport and communication made life easier

Machines relieved man of the drudgery. Machines have brought more leisure.

Harmful effects of Industrial Revolution -

The industrial Revolution shattered the rural life by turning the farmers into landless labourers.

Rural unemployment forced the unemployed farmers to migrate to cities in search of jobs. The cities became overcrowded and many problems of insanitation and housing arose.

The industrial Revolution gave birth to imperialism

Q.4 - : Why the system of advances proved harmful for the weavers?

No chance of bargaining – The weavers lost the chance of bargaining.

Leasing of land – most of the weavers had to lease out the land and devote all their time to weaving.

Dependency for food on others – most of the weavers after losing their land became dependent on other for the food supplies.

Clashes with Gomasthas – Gomasthas acted arrogantly, marched into villages with police and punished weavers for delay in supply.

No Profit- as the weavers had to sell their goods to the lenders.

Q.5 -Explain the term "Age of Industries"

Inventions & developments which revolutionized the technique of production Led to growth of new factory system.

New machines and steam power replaced human labour.
Led to the creation of new class- the capitalists and workers
Migration of people from rural to urban areas.

CHAPTER -5 PRINT CULTURE AND MODERN WORLD

Main Points

Invention of Printing Press had a very lasting effect on the social and cultural life of man.

Print initially developed East Asia and later developed through Europe and India.

Before the era of print or invention of Printing Press, writing of books was poorly manual affair.

Books were handwritten and even illustrated.

Calligraphy developed as an art during that era.

Calligraphy means the art of beautiful and stylish writing.

Printed Matter Chinese Tradition: Chinese were the first to have a system of recruitment of civil service personal through open examination.

Printing remained confined to examination materials till around the 16th century.

Trade information was circulated among the traders through printed materials.

By 19th century mechanical printing press made their appearance in China

The First Printing Press was invented in 1430s by Johann Gutenberg

Johann Gutenberg's Bible was the most beautiful books ever printed.

Germany took the lead in revolutionizing printing all over Europe.

The new Print Technology revolutionized the way knowledge came to be spread among the peoples. Printed books were now affordable for a much wider section of the society.

Reading books was no longer restricted to the rich elite sections of the society. It led to spread of education.

Power driven Cylindrical Press could print up to 8000 sheets in an hour. Invention of Offset Printing.

Use of electrically operated printing machines

Use of Paper reels in place of paper sheets and photo electric control of colour register.

Advertisement and posters were also printed.

Publication of cheap series of books.

India and Print Culture

Print culture came to India with the coming of Portuguese missionaries. Konkani was the first Indian language in which books were printed.

The first Tamil book printed was printed in 1579 and Malayalam book in 1713.

Printed tracts played a very significant role in the spread of social reform movement in India

Popular Prints-The Calendars and Cartoons

Printed pictures mostly portrayed Gods and Goddesses Printed Material especially for women

Books for Workers-Industrialization and invention of machines popularized printed books.

Control on Circulation of Printed Literature- Control on the freedom of press was first introduced in 1820 by the Calcutta Supreme Court.

Thomas Macaulay played a very important role in withdrawing restrictions on press.

During the period of freedom struggle British Rulers restricted the freedom of the Press.

Contemporary India II

CHAPTER-1

RESOURCES AND DEVELOPMENT

LAND RESOURCES

ALLUVIAL SOIL

Made of river deposits, consist of sand silt and clay

Types- Bangar and Khadar

Intensively cultivated, supports dense population

Ideal for paddy, wheat, sugarcane

Northern Plains & deltas

BLACK SOIL (Regur Soil)

Made of lava flow

Ideal for cotton cultivation

High capacity to hold moisture
Rich in lime, potash, magnesium and calcium carbonate
Deccan Plateau

RED & YELLOW SOIL

Red colour due to diffusion of iron in crystalline and Metamorphic rocks.
Yellow due to hydration
Odisha & Chattisgarh

CLASSIFICATION OF SOIL

ARID SOIL

Sandy in texture, saline in Nature,
Lacks humus & Moisture,
Lower horizon of soil contain kankar
Western Rajasthan

FOREST SOIL

Found in hilly forests areas
Loamy & silty valley sides
Jammu Kashmir, Sikkim

LATERITE SOIL

Derived from Latin word 'later' which means brick

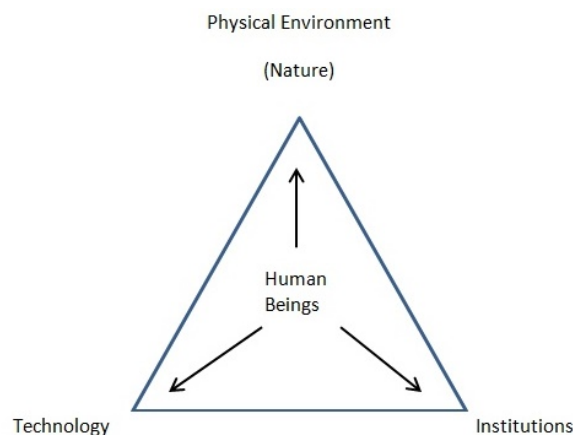

Prone to leaching

Low humus

Suitable for crops like Cashew nut.

Kerala Karnataka, M.P
Hilly Odisha & Assam

Interdependent Relationship between nature, technology and institutions

Key Concepts to Remember-

Renewable Resources- Resources which can be reproduced or renewed by physical, chemical or mechanical process. Eg. Solar, wind.

Non-Renewable Resources- Resources which get exhausted with their use. Eg. Coal, Petroleum.

Individual resources- Owned by individuals Eg. Own land, House.

Community Owned Resources- Resources which are accessible to all the members of the community Eg. Parks & Playground.

National Resources- Resources which belong to the nation. Eg. Roads, Railways.

International resources- Resources which no individual country can utilize. Eg. Oceanic waters beyond 200 km

Potential resources- Resources found in a region but not in use. Eg. Solar Energy in Rajasthan, wind in Gujarat.

Stock- Resources available but do not have appropriate technology to access. Eg. Lack of technical know how to use hydrogen and oxygen as source of energy.

Reserve- Subset of stock. Can be used for future needs. Eg. Water in the dams, forest resources.

Development of Resources

It means the extraction and utilization of resources using the available technology, to satisfy human needs.

Sustainable development

- Development should take place without damaging the environment.
- Present development status should continue and grow in future.
- Development in the present should not compromise with the needs of the future

Agenda 21 - it aims at achieving global sustainable development.

It is an agenda to combat environmental damage, poverty, disease, through global cooperation on common interests, mutual needs and shared responsibilities.

Land under important relief features in India –

Plains-43%, Mountains-30%, Plateaus-27%

Land Degradation

Continuous use of land over a long period of time without taking appropriate measures to conserve and manage it.

Soil erosion

The denudation of the soil cover and subsequent washing down is soil erosion.

Reasons for soil erosion include

Human activities like deforestation, over grazing, construction, mining, defective method of farming etc
Natural forces like wind, glacier and water flow

Types of Erosion

Gully Erosion

The running water cuts through the clayey soils and makes deep channels known as gullies. This makes the land bad land and in the Chambal basin such land is known as ravines.

Sheet Erosion-When top soil over large area is washed away it is known as sheet erosion.

Methods to prevent Soil Erosion in Hilly Area

Ploughing along the contour lines-contour ploughing

Terrace cultivation

Strip farming

Shelter belts

Question and answers - (3 Marks) 1.. Distinguish between Potential and developed resources.

Potential resource-resources which have been found in a region but have not been utilized.

Developed resource-resources which are surveyed and their quantity and quality have been determined for utilization.

2. Distinguish between Bangar and Khadar.

Bangar-It is the old alluvial soil. Less Fertile, it has a lot of concentration of kankar nodules

Khadar-New alluvium, highly fertile.

3. . Describe the land use pattern in India.

Pasture land- land under permanent pasture is very low and further decreasing. But we are still managing the cattle population in India by preparing fodder for them

Net sown area- It is about 54 percent in India. The pattern of Net Sown Area varies from region to region.

Forest area- It is far lower than the desired 33 percentage of the geographical area. It is considered essential for maintaining the ecological balance.

Waste land- It includes rocky, arid, desert areas and land put to non-agricultural uses.

4. Resource planning is the single solution for sustainable development .Justify.

An equitable distribution of resources has become essential for a sustained quality of life and global peace.

If the present trend of resource depletion by a few individuals and countries continues the future of our planet is in danger.

Resource planning is essential for sustainable existence of all forms of life.

Utilizing the resources in a judicious manner so as our future generation is not deprived of them.

5. Find out reasons for low percentage of Net Sown Area in Arunachal Pradesh. Mizoram, Manipur and Andaman and Nicobar Islands

Reasons for low percentage of Net Sown Area

Rocky, mountainous, not suitable for agriculture

Climate is harsh

Heavy rain hampers the agricultural activities

Question and Answer

(5 Marks)

1. What are the advantages of renewable resources?

The resources which can be used again and can be reproduced by physical, chemical or mechanical processes are known as renewable resources

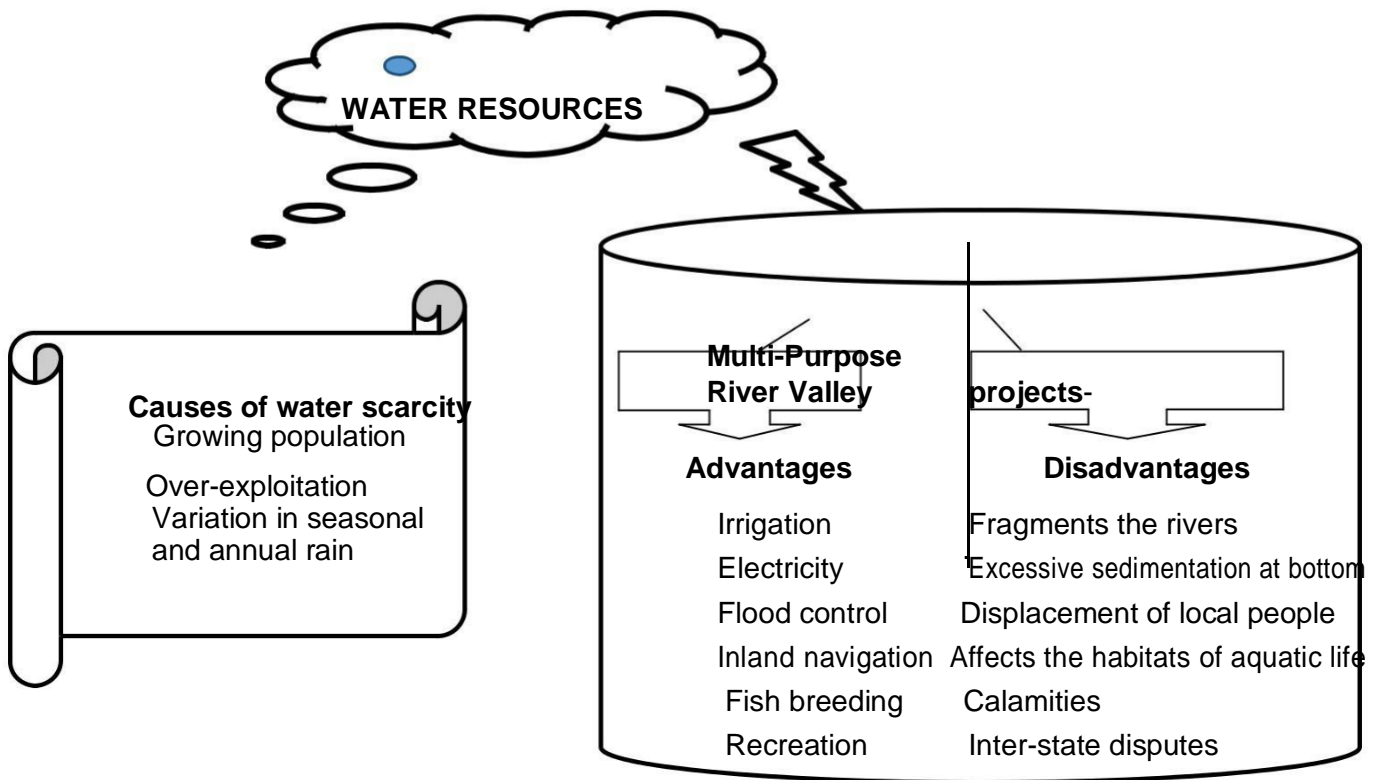

These resources take a short time for renewal. These are free gifts of nature

Renewable resources are pollution free and therefore environment friendly

Example are solar energy, wind energy, tidal energy, geothermal energy, forests and wildlife etc.

CHAPTER-2

WATER RESOURCES

Dam-Embankments or structures built across the river to store rain water for various uses.

Inundation Canal -Canal meant for diverting flood water mainly during the rainy season.

Rain water Harvesting- It is a technique of increasing the recharge of ground water by capturing and storing rainwater by construction of dug well, percolation pit etc.

Guls/Kul"s-Diversion channel for agriculture in the hill and mountain regions.

Khadins-Johads-Rain fed storage structures in agricultural fields that allow water to stand and moisten the soil.

Bamboo Drip Irrigation-A type of irrigation where water gets dropped in the form of drops near the roots of the plant mainly to conserve the moisture.

Question and Answer (3 Marks) 1. Why are multi-purpose River Valley Projects called the „temples of modern India?

Economic prosperity-agriculture, urbanization, Promotion of tourism

Integrate the development of agriculture and the village economy with rapid industrialization

2. Why is it necessary to conserve water resources in India? Give three reasons?

To ensure food security.

To control over exploitation and mismanagement

To safeguard ourselves from health hazard as quality of water is affected badly.

How are dams classified?

Dams are classified according to structure and height like timber dams, embankments, masonry, large medium height or low dams.

Why was the Narmada Bachao Andolan started?

Andolan focused on environmental issue, rehabilitation of displaced people against the building of Sardar Sarovar Dam.

Write a note on the traditional method of rain water harvesting in western Himalayas, Bengal and Rajasthan?

In hill and mountainous regions, people built diversion channels like the guls' or kuls' of the Western Himalayas for agriculture. In the flood plains of Bengal, people developed inundation channels to irrigate their fields.

In Rajasthan - The tankas were part of the well-developed rooftop rainwater harvesting system and were built inside the main house of the courtyard. They were connected to the sloping roofs of the houses through a pipe.

Question and Answer

(5Marks)

Explain any five main causes of water pollution.

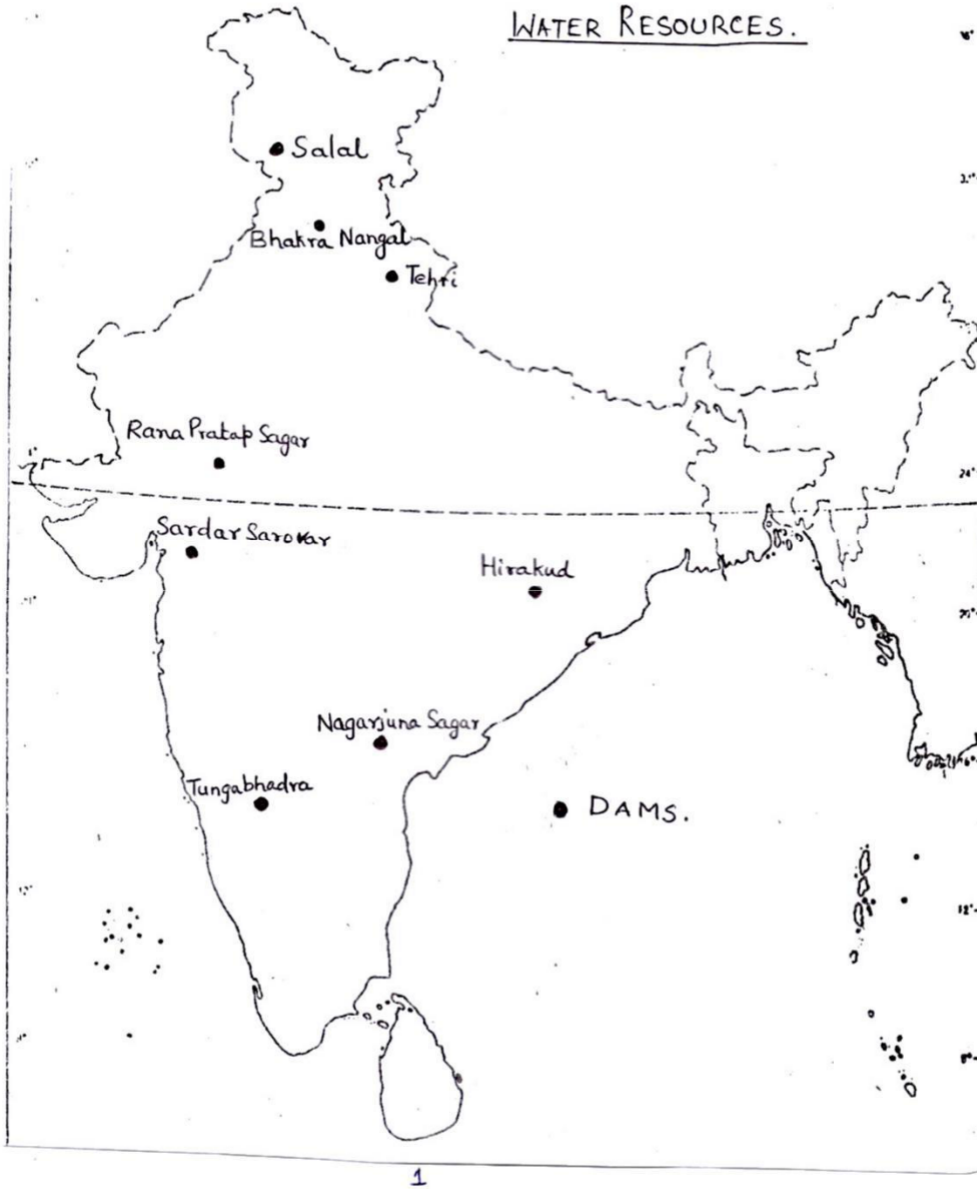

Industrial effluents dumped without treatment, Thermal pollution-Polluted hot water is pumped into the river, Domestic waste, Use of washy, oily spills from the ships.

Use of excessive fertilizers- Drip into the soil- Underground water get polluted.

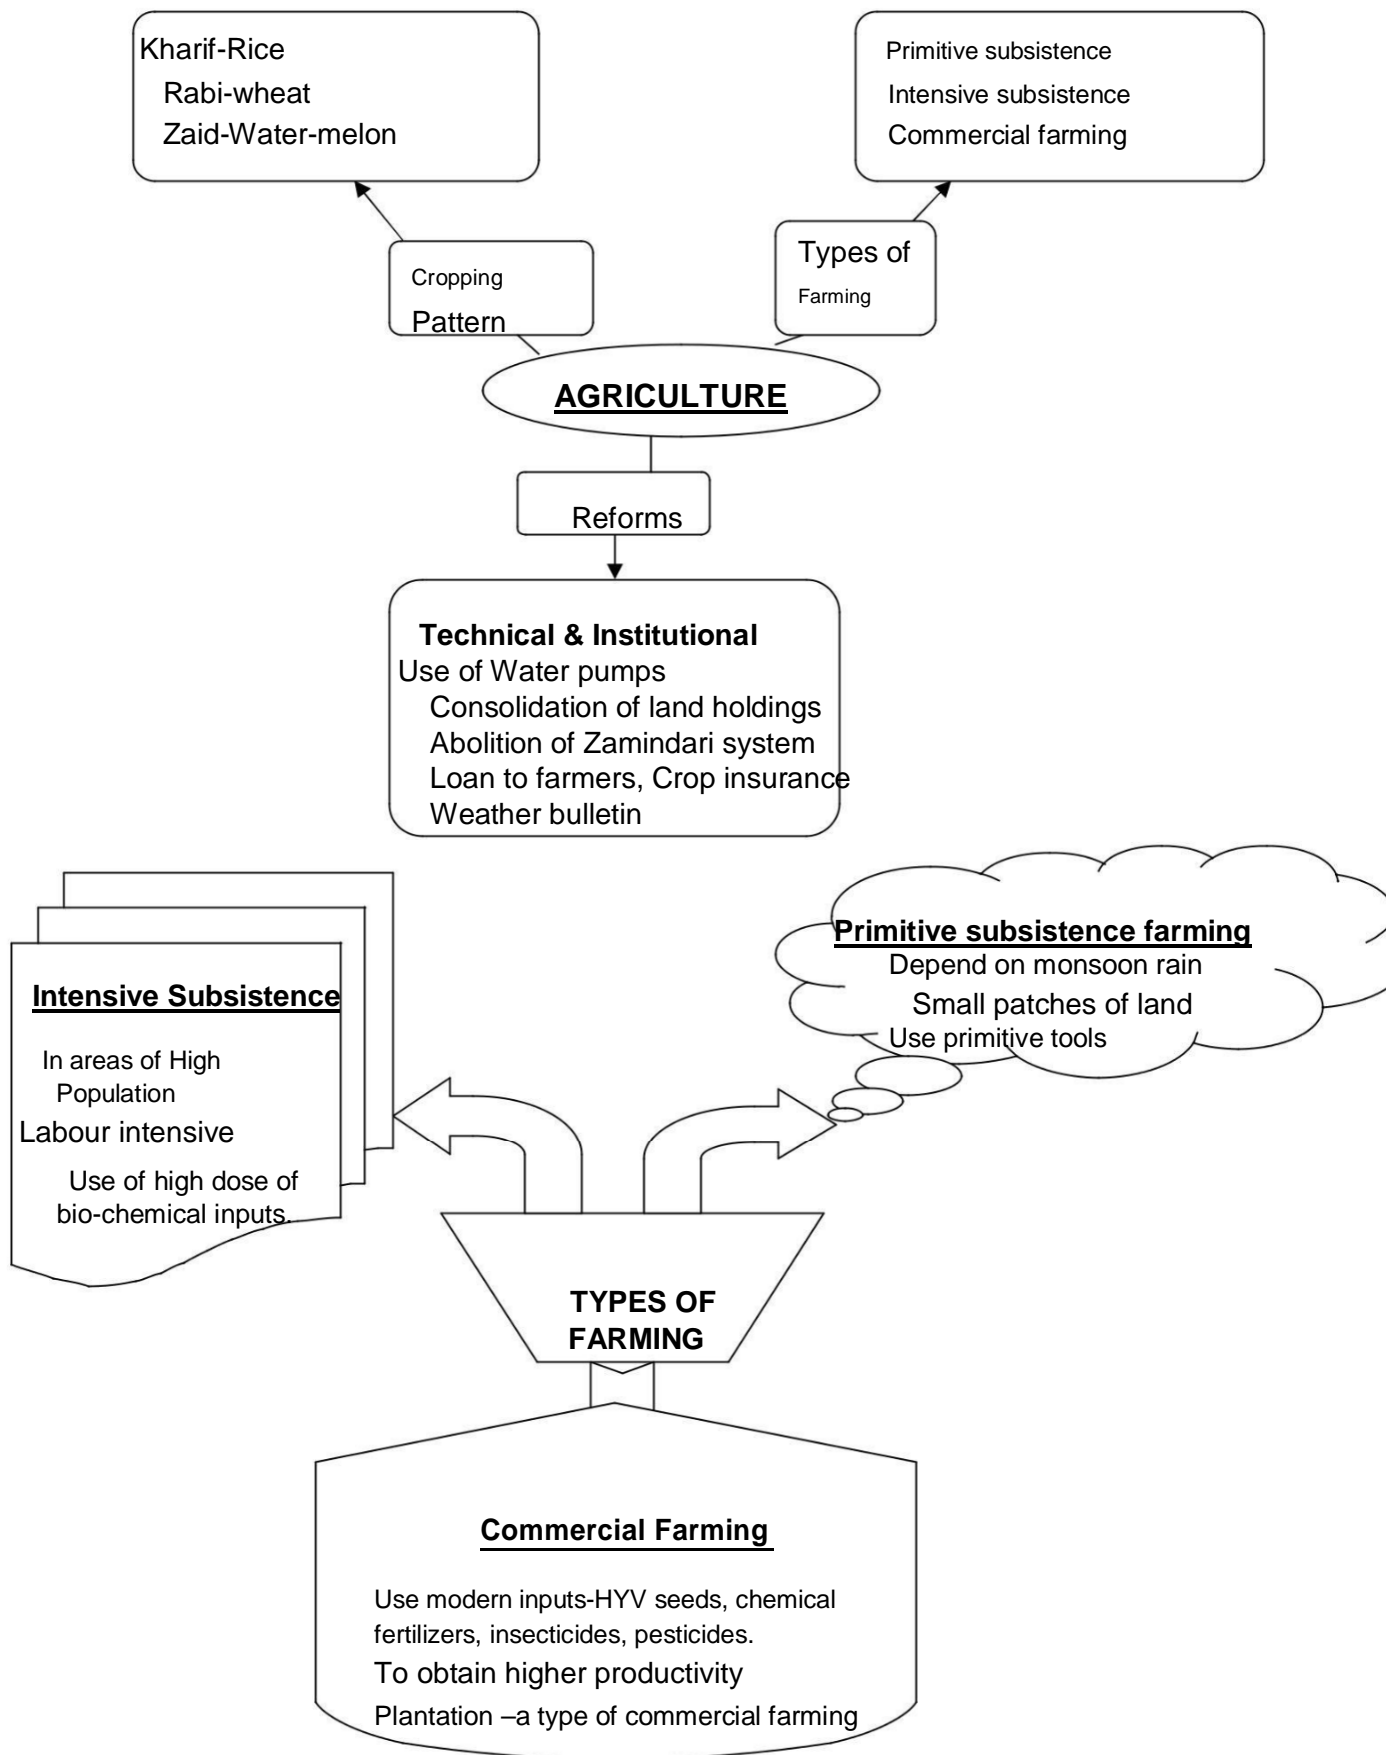

2 .In recent years, multi-purpose projects and large dams have come under great scrutiny and opposition – Why?

- a) Excessive sedimentation,
- b)Difficult for aquatic fauna to migrate,
- c)Large scale displacement of local communities,
- d) Unsuccessful in control of floods at the time of excessive rain fall,
- e) Induced earth quakes, Caused water borne diseases and pests pollution.
- f) Eg. Release of water from dams during heavy rains.

CHAPTER-3 AGRICULTURE

Sl. No.	Crop and Season	Climatic Requirements	Area of Production
1	Rice-Kharif [staple crop]	Temperature above 25°C, -high humidity- Annual Rain fall above 100cm Alluvial soil	Plains of north and north-eastern ,coastal areas, and deltaic regions WestBengal, Andhra Pradesh, Punjab,TamilNadu, Kerala
2	Wheat- Rabi[cereal crop]	50-75 cm annual rainfall, cool growing season and bright Sunshine at the time of ripening. Alluvial loamy soil.-	Punjab, Haryana, UP, Bihar, Rajasthan Ganga-satluj plains in North- western black soil region of Deccan.
3	Maize-Kharif	Temperature 21-27°C Old Alluvial soil	Bihar,[grown in Rabi season] UP, MP, Karnataka, Andhra Pradesh
4	Sugarcane-	Temperature 21-27°C Rain fall 75-100 cm, low rainfall Grow on variety of soils	India-second largest producer, UP, Maharashtra, Karnataka, Tamil Nadu, Andhra Pradesh, Punjab, Haryana, Bihar
5	Tea- [Beverage crop] [leading producer and exporter]	Well drained soil, rich in humus and organic matter Warm-moist-frost free days, frequent showers evenly distributed over the years	Assam, hills of Darjiling and Jalpaiguru in West Bengal, Tamil Nadu, Kerala,Himachal,Uttarakand,Meghalaya, Andra Pradesh and Tripura.
6	Coffee-	Cool climate, hilly region Well drained soil	Karnataka, Kerala, Tamil Nadu
7	Rubber-	Temperature –moist and humid climate, above 25°C Rain fall more than 200 cm	Kerala, Tamil Nadu, Karnataka, Meghalaya, Andaman and Nicobar
8	Cotton- Kharif	Temperature avg=25°C Rain fall = 100 cm 210 frost free days Black soil	Maharashtra, Gujarat, M.P, Punjab, Haryana
9	Jute-Kharif	Temperature avg=25-30°C Rain fall = 15-200 cm Well drained fertile soil	Bengal Bihar, Assam, Orissa, Meghalaya
10	Jowar(Millet s)	Rain-fed crop – grown in moist area	Maharashtra is the largest producer , Karnataka , Andhra Pradesh and Madhya Pradesh
11	Bajra (Millets)	Sandy soil and shallow black soil	Rajasthan is the largest producer, Uttar Pradesh, Maharashtra, Gujarat and Haryana
12	Ragi (Millets)	Grows in dry region. Grows well on red , black , sandy, loamy and shallow black soils.	Karnataka is the largest producer of ragi, Tamil Nadu, Himachal Pradesh, Uttarakhand, Sikkim, Jharkhand and Arunachal Pradesh.

Cropping Pattern

- Slash and burn" agriculture - Clears a patch of forest land and produce crops, when the soil fertility decreases the farmer shifts and clear a fresh patch of land, known by different names in different parts of India- like Jhumming ,mostly done in the Northeastern-states

Rabi Crops-Sown in Winter from October to December and harvested in Summer from April to June- eg. Wheat, Barley, Peas, Gram

Kharif Crops -Grown with the onset of the Monsoon, □harvested□in September October- eg. paddy, Maize, Jowar, Bajra

Zaid Crops-in between Rabi and Kharif season-short season during the summer months- eg. water melon, cucumber.

Question and Answer

(3 Mark)

Write the uses of jute. Why is it losing its market in India today?

It is known as the golden fibre. It is used in making gunny bags, mats, ropes, yarn, carpets and other artefacts. Due to its high cost, it is losing market to synthetic fibres and packing materials, particularly the nylon.

List the two beverage crop of India and write the climatic conditions need for its growth.

Tea- Well drained soil, rich in humus and organic matter- Warm-moist-frost freedays, frequent showers evenly distributed over the years Coffee- Cool climate, hilly region - Well drained soil

Question and Answer

(5 Marks)

Explain any five features of Indian agriculture.

- Intensive subsistence, labour intensive farming, high doses of biochemical inputs and irrigation are used for obtaining high yield. The right of inheritance has led to division of land among successive generations.

Slash and burn" agriculture -Clears a patch of forest land and produce crops, when the soil fertility decreases the farmer shifts and clear a fresh patch of land, known by different names in different parts of India- like Jhumming ,mostly done in the Northeastern-states

Rabi Crops-Sown in Winter from October to December and harvested in Summer from April to June- eg. Wheat, Barley,

Well drained soil

Agriculture Map

CHAPTER-4
MINERALS AND ENERGY RESOURCES

Key concepts to Remember-

Placer deposits-Minerals that occur as alluvial fans in sands of valley floors, and the base of hills.

Rat-hole Mining -In the tribal areas of North-East India mining is carried out by individuals or communities illegally. The mining is done in the form of a long narrow tunnel known as Rat hole mining.

Magnetite-It is the finest iron ore with a very high content of iron up to 70%. It has excellent magnetic qualities, especially valuable in the electrical industry.

Hematite ore-It has slightly lower iron content than magnetite-50-60%

SHORT ANSWER TYPE QUESTIONS (3 MARKS)

1. Write two uses of Mica and also areas famous for mica deposits.

Used in electric and electronic industries Areas - (a)

Gaya-Hazaribagh in Jharkhand, and

(b)Ajmer and Beawar in Rajasthan

2.What are three types of Coal? Write one difference of each type of coal?

Lignite coal-low grade brown coal soft with high moisture content. Found in Neyveli (T.N)

Bituminous Coal- It contains 60-80% of carbon content.

Anthracite- Best quality, contains more than 80% of carbon content.

3.What are Geo-thermal Energy? Which are the two experimental projects of geothermal energy in India?

Geo-thermal energy refers to the heat and electricity produced by using the heat from the interior of the earth

Parvati Valley near Manikarn in Himachal Pradesh

Puga valley in Ladakh

4. Why mining activity is often called a “Killer Industry”. Give three reasons.

- High risk involved
- Due to poisonous fumes, mines are vulnerable to workers for pulmonary diseases.
- Risk of collapsing mines roofs, and fires in coal mines.
- Water sources get contaminated.

5. Give three reasons in favour of the use of "Atomic energy".

Coal and natural oil are exhaustible.

Abundant deposits of uranium and thorium in India

Most developed countries are utilizing this energy successfully It can be useful in fields of medicines and agriculture

Hydel energy is not satisfactory due to environmental issues.

6. Why does solar energy in Rajasthan have great potential as non –conventional source of energy?

Hot and dry region

Clear sky almost whole year

Cheaper installation

Renewable and pollution free energy source.

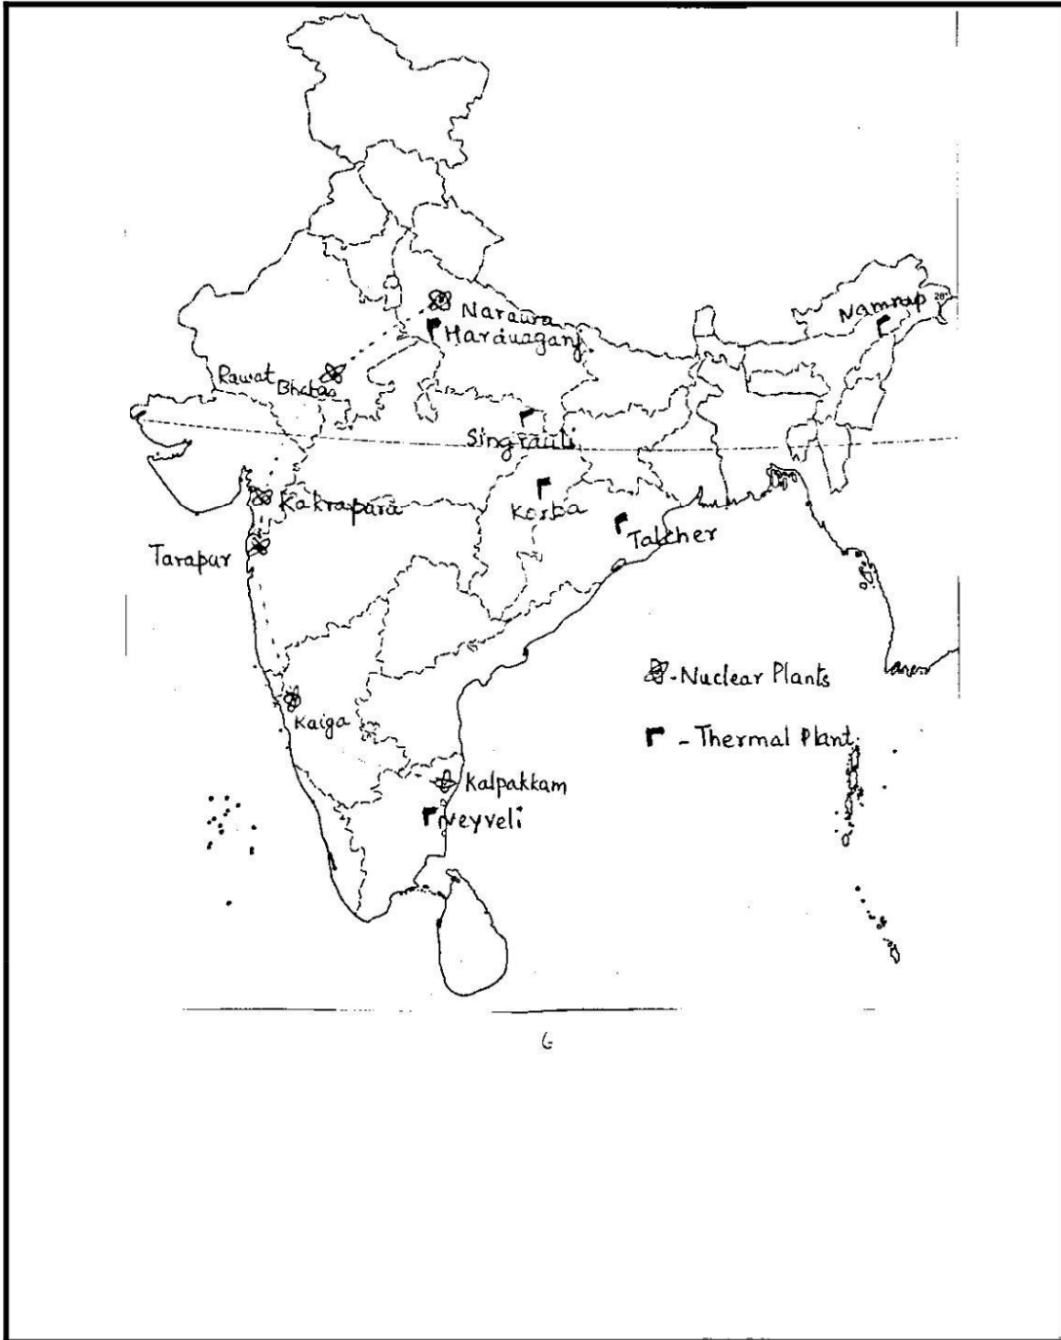

Government motivation

7. How can we conserve energy resources in India?

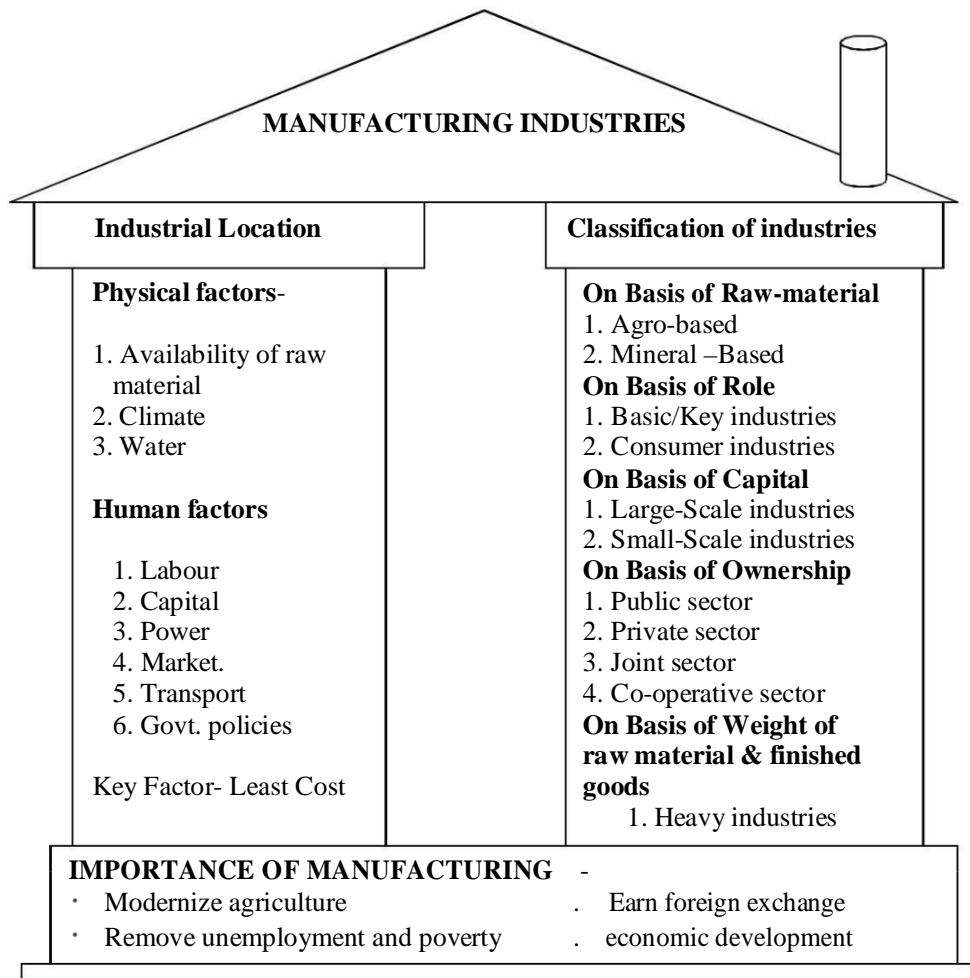

Explain Using public transport instead of individual vehicles. Switching of electricity when not in use.

Using power saving devices.

- Use of non-conventional source of energy as they are renewable and eco- friendly.
- In automobiles electrical motors should be introduced.
- Intensified exploration and research of new sources of energy.

CHAPTER -5
MANUFACTURING INDUSTRIES

Key Points to Remember-

- Manufacturing –It is production of goods in large quantities after processing raw materials to more valuable Products.
- NMCC(National Manufacturing Competitiveness Council) -It was set up when it was felt that, with appropriate policy interventions by the government and renewed efforts industries can improve productivity and achieve its target
- Agro-based industries:- Industries based on agricultural raw materials for example cotton textiles jute textiles, silk textiles, synthetic textiles, sugar industry
- Mineral-based industries: Industries using minerals as their raw materials- iron and steel, cement, chemical industries, Aluminium smelting, copper smelting, fertilizer industry etc.
- Small scale industry- Investment is rupees one crore.
- Large Scale Industries- Investment is more than one crore.’

Major Challenges of Sugar Industry-

SHORT ANSWER TYPE

1. What are agglomeration economies?

Many industries tend to come together to make use of the advantages offered by the urban institutions such as banking, insurance, transport, labour. This is known as agglomeration economies.

2. Which factors are responsible for the decentralization of cotton textile mills in India? Cotton textile have a very high demand throughout the country.

- Major inputs like banking, electricity, transportation are available in almost every part of the country

Textile industry is labour intensive industry and labour is easily available in India.

Textile industry requires less technological inputs and can be carried out using simple tools and machines.

3. What are the major problems of cotton textile industry?

- Lack of good quality long staple cotton
- Erratic power supply
- Out dated machinery and technology
- Low output of workers
- Stiff International Competition

4. What are the factors responsible for Jute industry in Hugli basin?

- Proximity of jute producing areas
- Inexpensive water transport
- Well-connected roads, rail and waterways.
- Abundant water
- Cheap labour from adjoining areas
- Banking facilities in Kolkata

5. What were the major objectives of National Jute Policy 2005? Why is the internal demand for jute increasing?

- To increase the productivity
- To improve the quality
- Ensuring good prices to the jute farmers
- Enhancing the yield per hectare

The internal demand for jute has been on the increase because -

- Government policy of mandatory use of jute packaging
- The growing global concern for environment friendly bio degradable materials.

6. Why is iron and steel industry called a basic industry?

- It is the industry which lays the foundation of rapid development of other industries such as Heavy Engineering, Defence equipment, Automobiles, Aeroplanes etc.
- It is also helpful in providing employment.
- It also helps in the economic development

7. The sugar industry is now shifting from north to south. Mention main reasons.

- The sugar contents in the cane is higher i.e. 10.5% in Maharashtra and other southern states.

Climate is suitable for the cultivation of sugarcane.

South has better export facilities as compared to North.

- Cooperative sugar mills are more successful in management in south India.
- The Peninsular climate helps to extend the crushing season by two months in the south India than north India.

8. How are integrated steel plants different from mini steel plants?

Integrated Steel Plant is larger in size than Mini Steel Plant.

Integrated Steel Plant handle everything in one single Complex from putting together raw material to steel making, rolling and shaping while the Mini steel Plants use steel scrap, sponge iron and sometimes steel ingots supplied by integrated Steel Plants.

Integrated Steel Plants manufacture all types of steel but Mini steel Plants produce mild and alloy steel of give specification

9. Discuss the steps to be taken to minimise environmental degradation by industries.

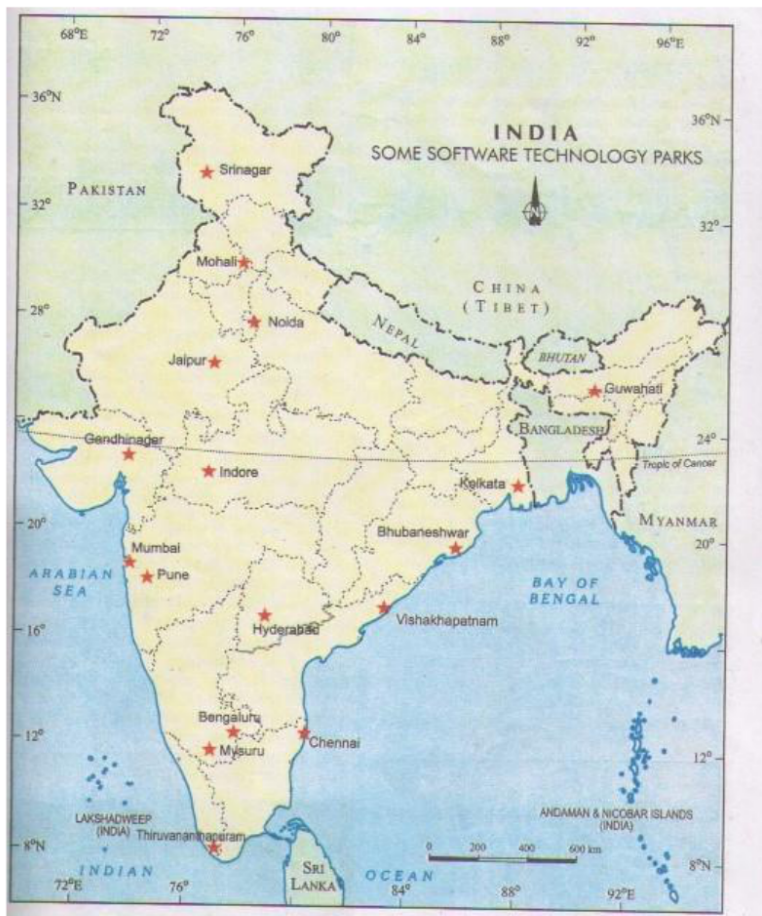

Restricting use of fossil fuels and using hydel power

- Fitting smoke stacks to factories with electrostatic precipitators, fabric filters, scrubbers and inertial separators.

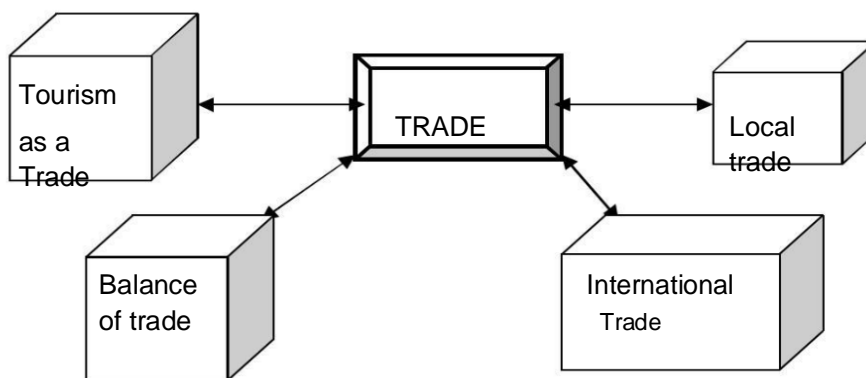

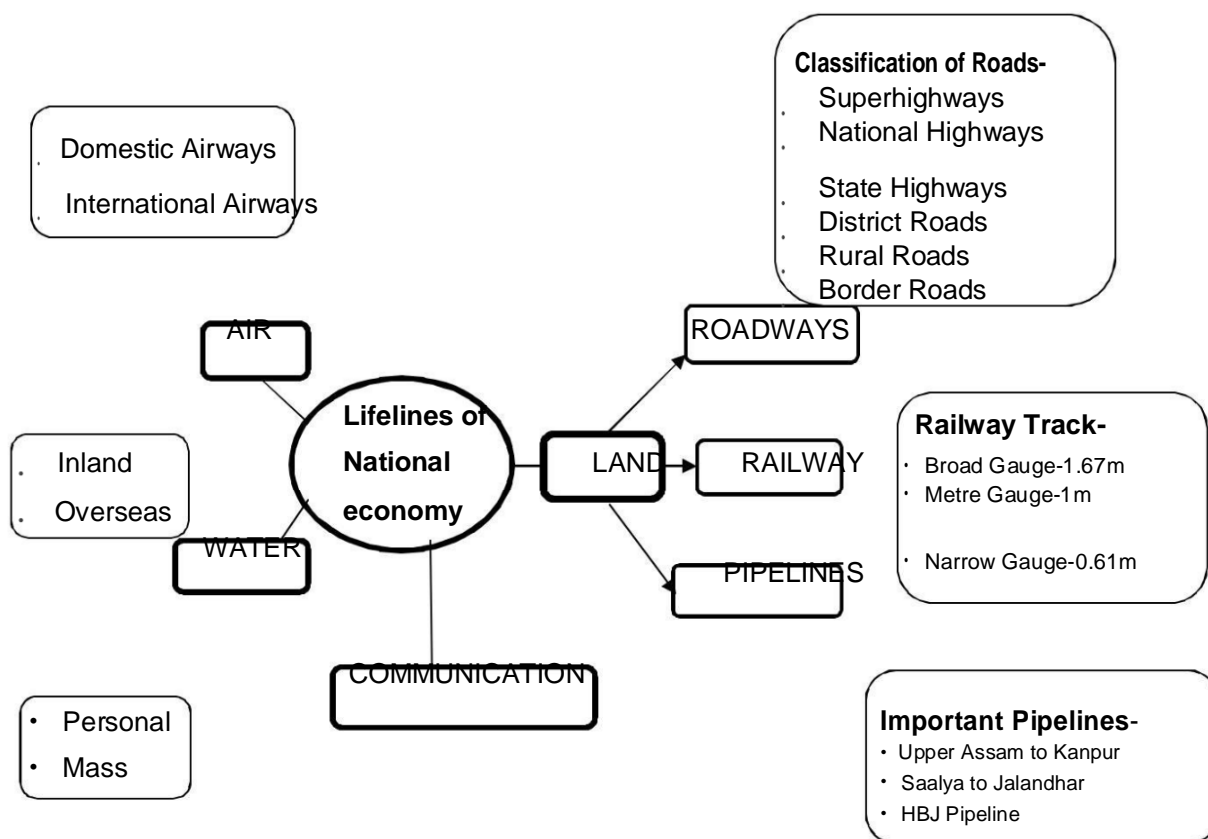

Discharging the dirty water after treating it.

Machinery and equipment and generators can be fitted with silencers

Redesign machinery to make them energy efficient and to reduce noise.

CHAPTER-6 LIFE LINES OF NATIONAL ECONOMY

Key points to remember

Road Density -The length of road per 100 sq kms of area is known as density of roads

Golden Quadrilateral Super Highways -It is major road development project linking the four metropolitan cities-Delhi, Kolkata, Mumbai and Chennai by six lane super highways

North-South Corridor- Roads linking Srinagar to Kanya Kumari East-West Corridor- Roads linking Silcher (Assam) to Porbandar (Gujarat)

National Highways- Major roads connecting state capitals and metropolitan cities of a country.

State Highways- Roads linking a state capitals with different district headquarters.

International Trade-Trade between two countries is called international trade.

Export: When the goods are sent to other country for sale it is called as export.

Import: When the goods come from other country to be sold in India it is called import.

Balance of Payment: This is the difference between export and import of a country.

SHORT ANSWER TYPE (3 MARKS)

1. Why is air travel preferred in North-East?

• Uneven and mountain terrain, Dense forests, Presence of big rivers, frequent floods, international frontiers.

2. Write three advantage of waterways.

Cheapest means of transport, can carry heavy and bulky goods, do not cause air pollution.

3. Name three National waterways .

The Ganga river between Allahabad and Haldia

Brahamaputra river between Sadiya and Dhubri

West Coast Canal in Kerala.

LONG ANSWER TYPE (5 MARKS)

1. What are the advantages of transport?

Facilitates easy and free movement of people from one place to another.

Helps to carry goods and materials from one place to another

Helps in production and distribution of goods.

Connect markets with the production centres.

Promotes easy accessibility of goods and services.

Helps in development of trade and commerce.

Helps to increase the volume of the Trade.

2. What are the problems faced by Indian roadways?

Road network is inadequate for increasing volume of traffic.

About half of the roads are unmetalled.

The National Highways are inadequate and are poorly maintained.

The roadways are highly congested in cities and are lacking safety measures.

Most of the bridges and culverts are old and narrow.

Lack of proper security measures.

3. What are the Problems Faced by Indian Railways?

Requires huge investment at the time of installation. Maintenance and upkeep is very costly.

Construction is difficult and costly in uneven and high hills and deserts.

Not suitable for transportation of perishable goods.

Ticket-less travellers.

Thefts and damaging of railway property.

Unnecessarily chain pulling to stop train.

Gauge Conversions.

Sinking and slipping of tracks in rains.

Modernization and Electrification.

4. Why is transport and communication called lifelines of a country?

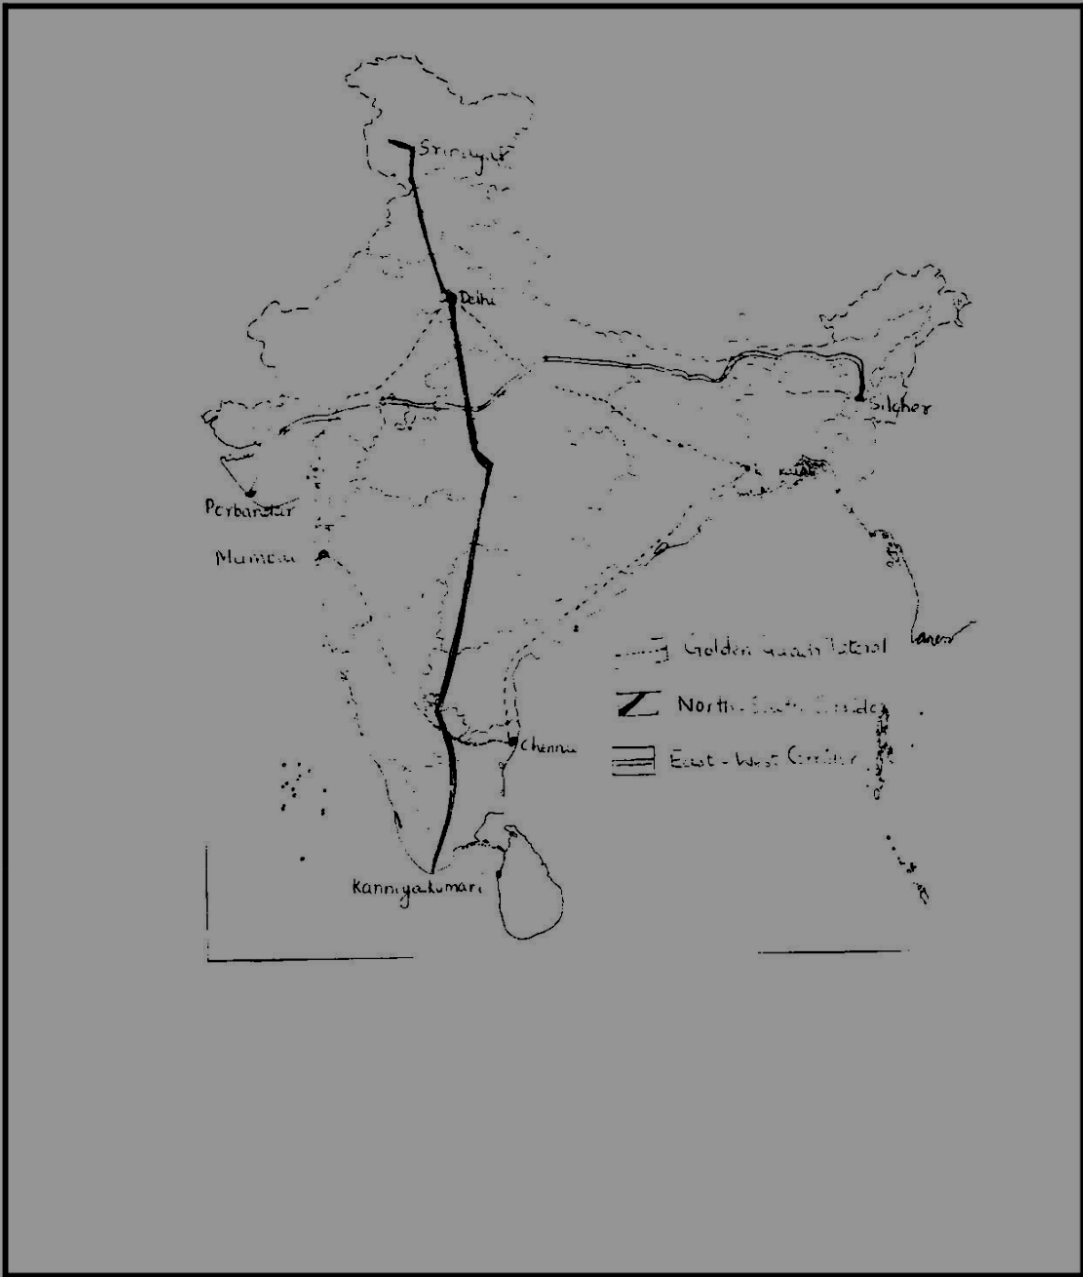

Connects far lying areas of the country

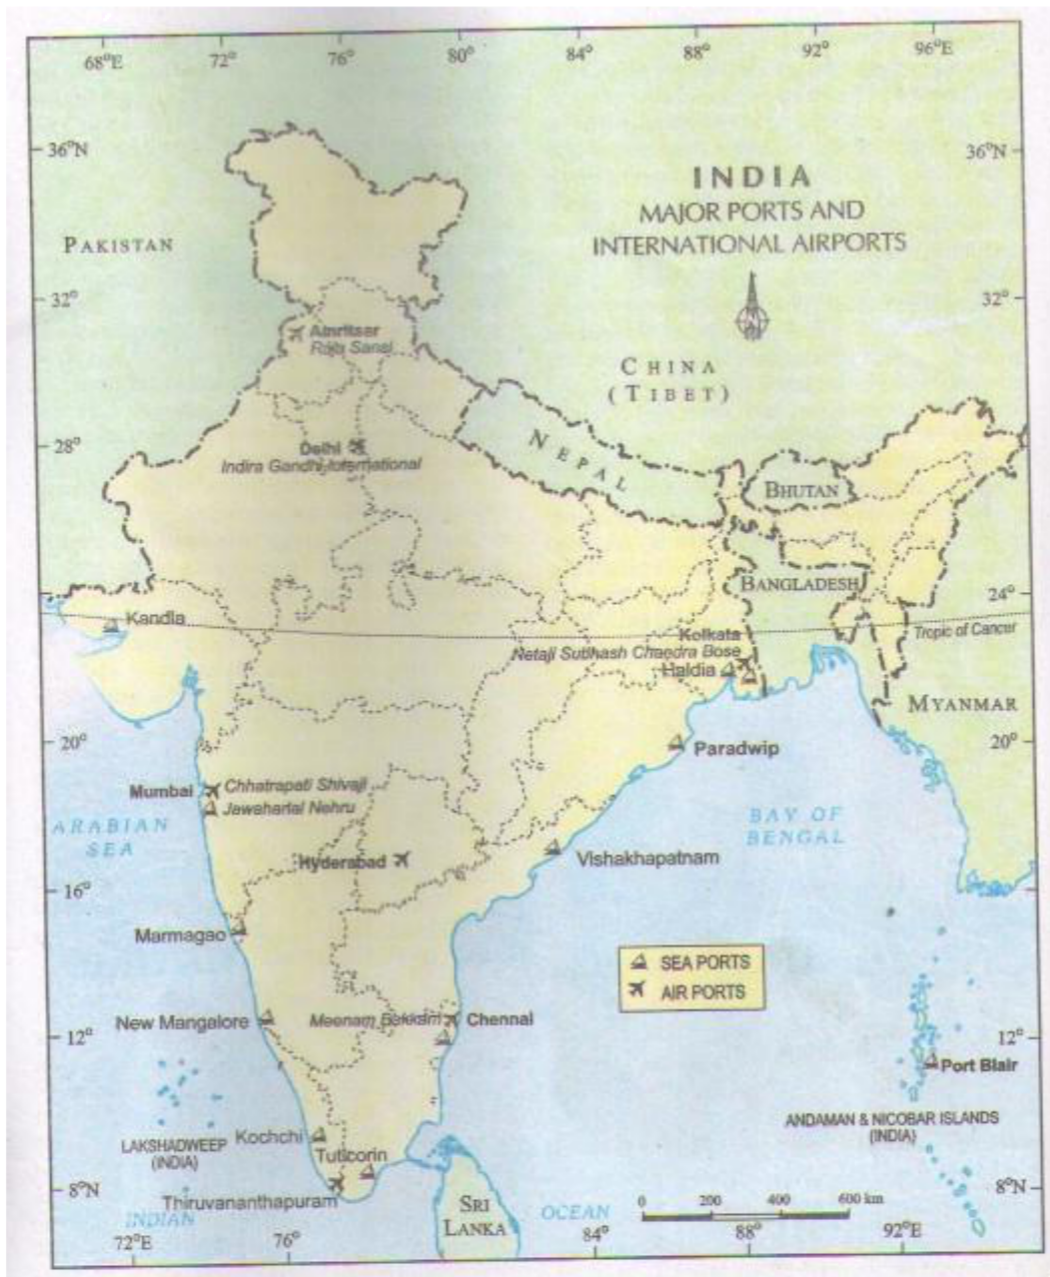

They benefit trade and commerce

Help in the development of agriculture and industry.

Helpful during calamities

Promotes unity of the country

DEMOCRATIC POLITICS - II

CHAPTER-1 POWER SHARING

Democratic form of government of

BELGIUM

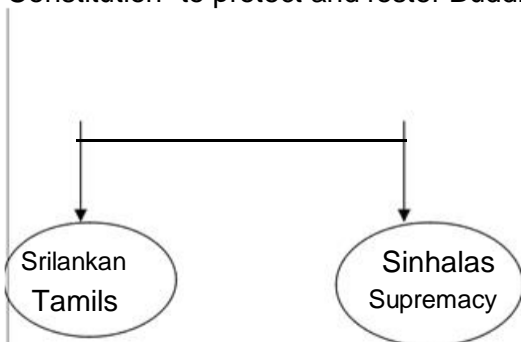

(Majoritarianism)

Independent in 1948

- (i) Democratically elected Government (Sinhala community dominated the ministry)
- (ii) Adopted a series of Majoritarian measures to establish Sinhala supremacy: 1956 Act, recognized Sinhala as the only language
- (iii) Favoured Sinhala applicants for university positions and Govt. jobs
- (iv) Constitution- to protect and foster Buddhism

(Accommodative)

- (i) Equal No. of Ministers from Dutch and French speaking in central Government
- (ii) No single community can Like make decisions for itself official State Govt. not subordinate to Central Govt.
- (iii) Brussels: Govt. too had Equal representation –
- (iv) Brussels: Govt. too had Equal representation –

Result:-

- a) Increased the feeling of distrust
Among the Srilankan Tamils, CIVIL WAR STARTED
- b) Constitution and the government ignored their Interests-denied equal political rights
- c) Sri Lankan Tamils launched parties and demand
Tamil Ealam State, Tamil as an official language, regional autonomy, equality in securing education and jobs

Result:-

- Country united respecting the feelings of different communities and regions
- Brussels chosen as headquarters of European Union
- COUNTRY UNITED

Civil war causes

Fought for recognition of Tamil as an official language.

Wanted regional autonomy

Equal opportunity in securing education and jobs
1980-demanded an independent Tamil Ealam
in northern and eastern part of Srilanka

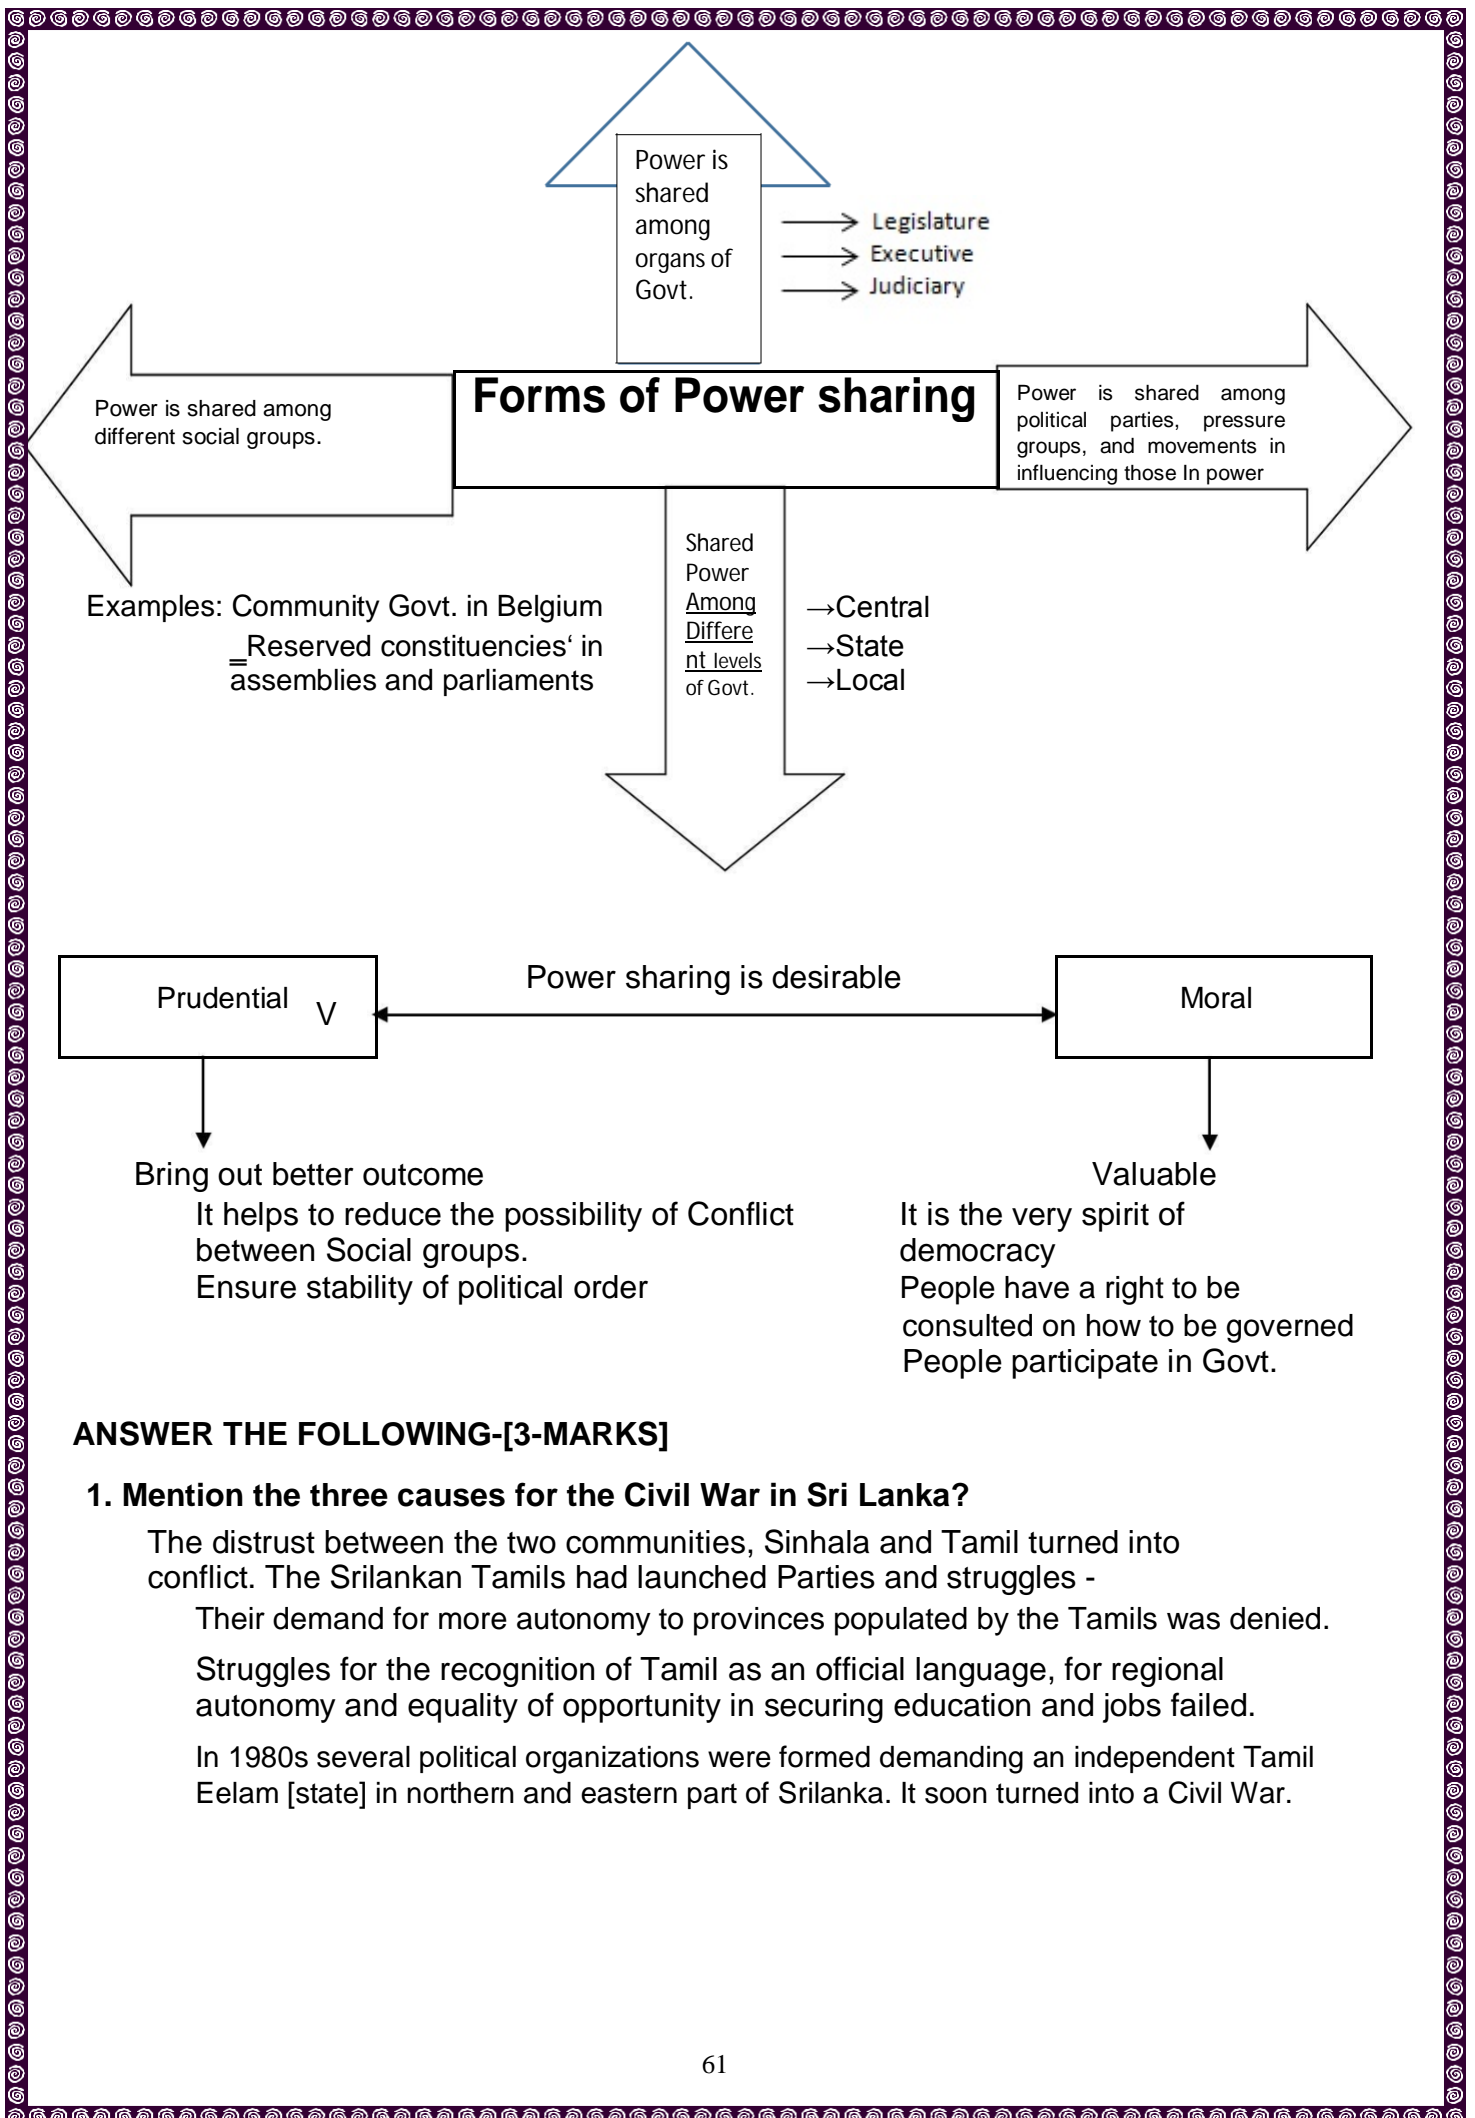

BELGIUM

Accommodation –Three kind of Government

Balance of Power with checks and balances

ANSWER THE FOLLOWING-[3-MARKS]

1. Mention the three causes for the Civil War in Sri Lanka?

The distrust between the two communities, Sinhala and Tamil turned into conflict. The Sri Lankan Tamils had launched Parties and struggles -

Their demand for more autonomy to provinces populated by the Tamils was denied.

Struggles for the recognition of Tamil as an official language, for regional autonomy and equality of opportunity in securing education and jobs failed.

In 1980s several political organizations were formed demanding an independent Tamil Eelam [state] in northern and eastern part of Sri Lanka. It soon turned into a Civil War.

2. List the three merits of Power Sharing?

Power sharing is a good way to ensure the stability of political order.

It is the very spirit of democracy.

It brings in the unity of the nation.

How has the democratically elected government in Srilanka established „Majoritarian, measures?

In 1956, an Act was passed to recognize Sinhala as the only official language, disregarding Tamil.

The government followed preferential policies that favoured Sinhala applicants for University positions and government jobs.

Protected and fostered Buddhism.

4. Why has Brussels ,been chosen as the headquarters of the European Union?

They recognized the existence of regional differences and cultural diversities and the arrangement [Accommodation] they worked out is different from any other country and is innovative.

It has avoided Civic problems and division on linguistic basis, instead brought stability.

Though complicated, this arrangement has enabled everyone to live together within the same country.

How is the system of „ checks and balances“ maintained among the different organs of the government?

Power is shared among the different organs of the government such as the Legislature, executive and judiciary.

It allows different organs of the government placed at the same level to exercise different powers.

Such a separation ensures that none of the organs can exercise unlimited power. Each organ checks the other .This result in balance of power.

LONG ANSWERS QUESTIONS [5marks]

Q.1 how has the Belgian government solved its ethnic Problem?

The Path of accommodation adopted in Belgium -

Dutch and French speaking ministers shall be equal in the central govt.

Many Powers of the central government have been given to state govt. The state Govt is not subordinate to the Central Govt.

Brussels has a separate Govt. in which both the communities have equal representation.

There is a third kind of Govt. called community Govt. elected by the people belonging to Dutch, French and German no matter where they live.

When many countries of Europe came together to form the Europe union, Brussels was chosen as its headquarters.

Q.2- Explain the four forms of Power Sharing with examples.

Horizontal distribution of power.[between the organs of the government-Legislature, Executive and Judiciary]- India

Vertical distribution of power. [among Central level, state level and local level] - India

Power sharing among different social groups.[Community Government, [Belgium] reserved seats, Women]- India

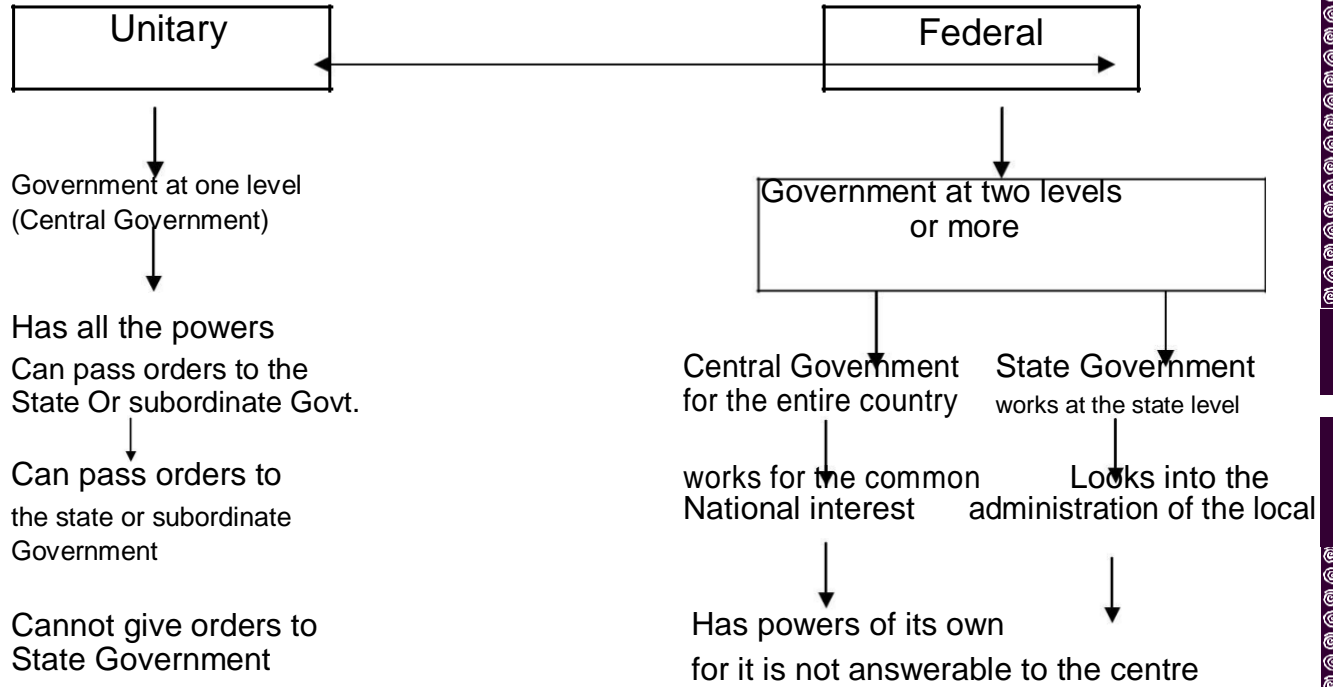

Power sharing among different political parties, Pressure groups and Movements.- In India [Coalition government]

QUESTION BANK

- Q.1 Why is power sharing good for democracies? Why is it desirable in the modern World?
- Q.2 Explain how the Civil War can be turned down and peace be restored in Srilanka.
- Q.3 Explain different forms of power sharing in modern democracies.
- Q.4 Explain the drawbacks of Majoritarianism.
- Q.5 Give a comparative analysis between Belgium and India.
- Q.6 What is a 'Community Government'- How is this formed in Belgium ?
- Q.7 How is the balance of power maintained among the three organs of the government?
- Q.8 Why do we have 'reserved constituencies'?

CHAPTER - 2 FEDERALISM

Types of Government

(Both these govts. are separately answerable to the people)

eg – U.K, Italy, Portugal

Eg. India, Belgium, South Africa, Australia

Features of Federalism:-

Two or more levels of government

Each level has its own jurisdiction (power)

Jurisdictions Specified in the Constitution

Changes in the provisions of Constitution require the consent of both the govts.

Courts acts as an umpire if any dispute arise between the levels of government.

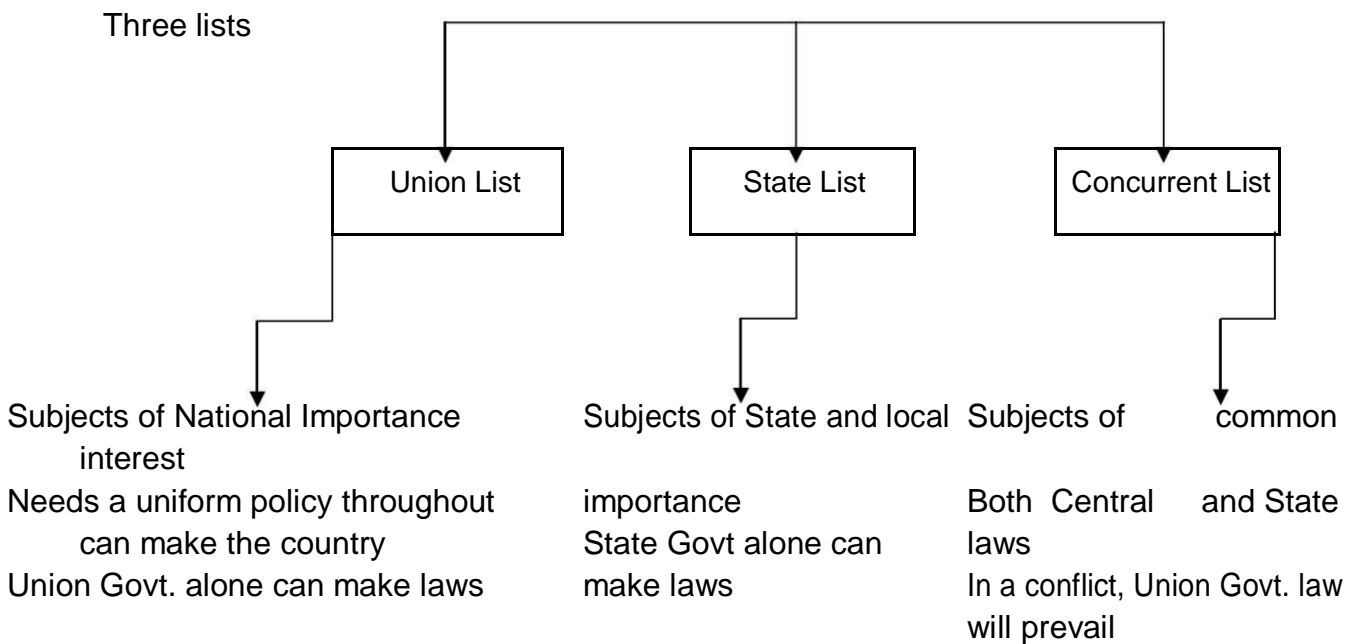

Sources of revenue specified (Financial autonomy) – Every state has its own revenue to look after its welfare.

Dual objective – promote the unity of the country by accommodating regional diversity

Two routes through which federation have been formed

Threefold distribution of legislative powers

Railway

Police

Education

Defence

Agriculture

Marriage

Residuary Subjects:

Computers

Subjects that do not fall in any of the three lists, laws of union Govt. will prevail.

How is federalism practiced?

Linguistic states- People who spoke the same language lived in the same state. Some states were created not on the basis of language, but to recognize differences based on culture, ethnicity or geography.

Formation of linguistic states has made the country united, made administration easier.

Language Policy- Did not give status of National language to any one language. Flexibility is shown. The use of English along with Hindi for official purposes is agreed. States too have their own official languages .

Centre State relations

Coalition Government.-A Government formed together with two or more political parties. They adopt a common programme.

Supreme Court:-

A major judgement of Supreme Court that made it difficult for the Central Govt. to dismiss State Govt. in an arbitrary manners.

Keyword:

Only 25 of the World's 192 countries have Federal Political System.

Decentralization

Power taken away from centre and State given to local government

Reason for Decentralization in India –

Large country

Three - Tier govt., - local govt. formed

Large no: of problems and issues

Local people-better knowledge of local problems

Democratic participation – local self – govt.

1992- Amendment – third tier made – more powerful

Steps taken to make third-tier more powerful

Regular elections

Reservation of seats for SC, ST,

OBC Reservation for women

Creation of state EC to control elections

State govt. to share power & revenue with local govt.

Formation of Panchayati Raj (Rural local government)-

Group of each village have a panchayat

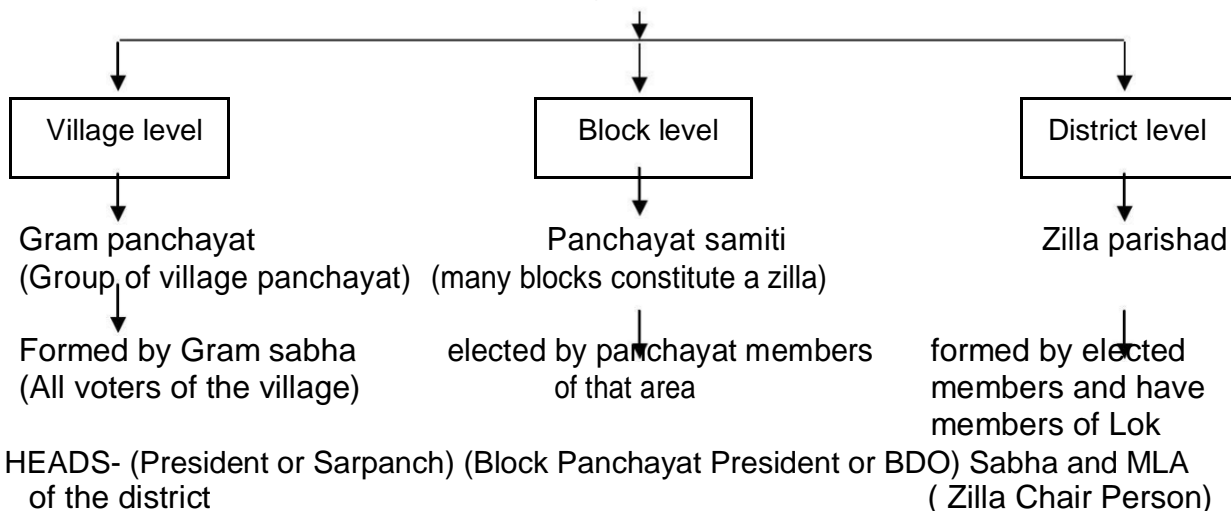

President or Sarpanch

Directly elected by the people

Works under the supervision of gram sabha (all voters of the village)

Meets twice or thrice a year to approve the budget of Gram Panchayat

Panchayati raj – local Self govt.(RURAL)

Local government – URBAN

ANSWER THE FOLLOWING-

[3-MARKS]

What are the two routes through which federation have been formed?

There are two kinds of routes through which federations can be formed.

First one is "Coming together Federation" in which independent units comes closely to each other to form a union in which both Centre and states vis-à-vis powerful.

Second one is "Holding together Federation" here a large country decides to divide its powers between the constituent states and the national government.

What is the importance of Local Self-government?

The matter of local interest like water supply, the cleaning and lighting of streets, maintenance of drainage system, etc. are best settled at the local level.

It is possible for the people to directly participate in decision making at the local levels like people can take part in panchayat meetings held in their area.

The money spend and the to manage things more efficiently are seen here.

3. What is the real reason for the success of federalism in India?

The constitutional provisions are laid out very clearly. The nature of democratic politics has ensured its success There is respect for diversity

The creation of Linguistic States, the flexibility shown by the Indian political leaders in Language policy and the significant changes made in the Centre –State relationships

What was the relationship between the Centre and state when different parties ruled at the Centre and state levels till 1990?

When different parties ruled at the Centre and state levels the parties at the Centre tried to undermine the power of states.

The central government misused the constitution often to dismiss the state governments that were controlled by other parties. This is against the spirit of federalism.

5. Write a note on the Local bodies that exist in urban areas?

Municipalities are setup in towns. Big cities have Municipal Corporations.

Both Municipalities and Municipal Corporations are controlled by elected bodies consisting of the people's representatives.

Municipal Chairman is the head of the Municipality and Mayor for Municipal Corporation.

LONG ANSWERS QUESTIONS: [5 MARKS]

1.What are the main features of Federalism?

1. In federalism there are two or more tires of government but both of the tiers rule over the same citizens.

Powers of every level are clearly written in the constitution and no one is authorized to cross its limits.

The fundamental provisions of the Constitution cannot be unilaterally changed by one level of government.

In federalism, courts are known as the guardians of constitution. Source of revenue of each level of government are clearly specified. The dual objectives of federal system –
[a]To safeguard and promote unity of the country [b] accommodate regional diversity.

2 What are the three-fold distribution of Legislative powers between the Union and the State governments? What are "Residuary Subjects"?

Constitution has clearly demarcated the powers between different levels. Every level is given certain subjects to make laws related to its jurisdiction.

Union List: Union List is a list of certain subjects on which Central government can make laws.

State List: State list is a list of certain subjects on which state government can make laws.

Concurrent List: Concurrent list is a list of subjects which are of common interest for both central and state government.

Residuary Subjects: There are certain subjects which are not included in any of the three lists only central government can make laws on these subjects.

3. What major steps were taken in 1992 towards decentralization?

A three tier democracies were introduced in 1992.

A step was taken towards creating rural local self govt. Regular elections to be held for panchayats.

Seats reserved for SC's and STs OBCs One third seats reserved for women

State govt. to share power and revenue with local bodies.

4. Explain the flexibility shown in the language policy in Indian federation?

Our Constitution did not give the status of national language to any one language.

A candidate in an examination conducted for Central government positions may opt to take the examination in any of the the languages. States too have their own official language.□

English along with Hindi is used for official purposes.□

Promotion of Hindi continues to be the official policy of Government of India. Here, promotion does not mean that Central government can impose Hindi on states where people speak a different language.

QUESTION BANK -

Q.1- Explain the composition of Panchayati Raj in India?

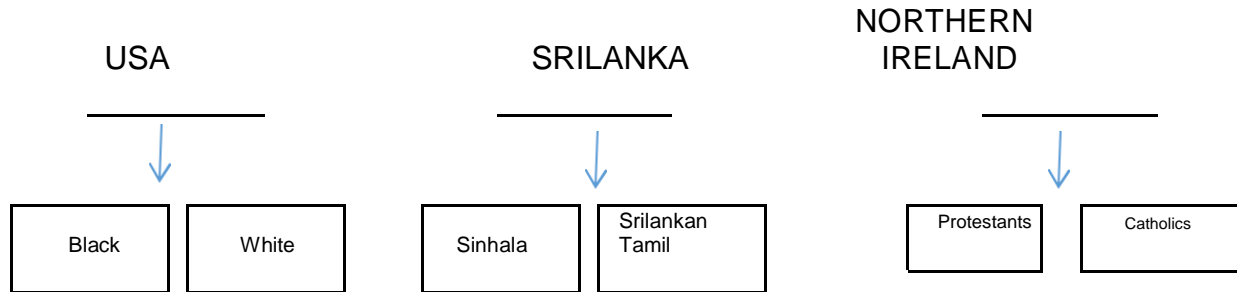

Q.2- Trace the history of the formation of the Linguistic States in India?

Q.3- Does a country like India need decentralization – Justify?

Q.4- What are Union Territories? Name two Union Territories of India.

Q.5- Define "Coalition Government"? How has this led to a new culture of Power Sharing?

CHAPTER - 3
DEMOCRACY AND DIVERSITY
 [To be assessed only in Periodic Test not in Board Exam.]

Social Division

Division of the society on the basis of language, region, caste, colour, race or sex. It signifies linguistic and regional diversity.

Civil Rights Movement in the USA(1954-1968)

A series of events and reform movements with the aim of abolishing legal, racial discrimination against African-Americans. Martin Luther King Jr. started the movement in 1954. This movement practiced non-violent methods of civil disobedience against racially discriminatory laws and practices.

African-Americans

Afro-American, Black American or Black are the terms used to refer mainly to the descendants of Africans who were brought into America as slaves between early 17th and 19th century.

The Black power.

It was a movement started by black people in 1966(1966-1975) against racism and the practice of apartheid. It was a militant movement advocating even violence if necessary to end racism in the US .

Migrants

Anybody who shifts from one region or country to another region within a country or to another country for the purpose of work or other economic opportunities.

Minority

It refers to communities who are less than half of the total population of the country. The idea of minority at national level is totally different from what it is at state level.

Homogenous Society.

Homogenous Society signifies absence of significant ethnic differences. It is a society that has similar kinds of people or inhabitants.

Multi- Cultural Community

Social community formed on the basis of different cultures is known as the Multi-cultural community. This happens mostly due to the practice of migration when people bring with them their own culture.

Athletes who made an important landmark in the history of Civil Rights Movement in the United States

They were US athletes-

1. Tommie Smith and John Carlos (held guilty)

Taken part in 200 race in 1968 Olympic held at Mexico city-Won gold and bronze medals

During the National Anthem they stood with clenched fists upraised and heads bowed, - wore black socks and no shoes, -Symbolize Black power

2. Peter Norman Australian – won silver medal and wore a human right's badge to support Tommie and John
(The athletes in the example above were responding to social divisions and inequalities)

Three determinants (factors) for the outcome of politics of social divisions –

How people perceive their identities- eg-to be an Indian though belonging to different state

How political leaders raise the demands of any community- eg- The demand for 'only Sinhala' in Srilanka brought distrust among Tamils.

How the govt. react to different groups- eg –Willing to share power and be accommodative like in Belgium

Advantage of social division in democracy-

Can express their grievances and the govt. attend to it

Intensity of social division is reduced by canceling one another out, through their expressions (being accommodative)

Raise their issues in a peaceful manner for seeking votes

ANSWER THE FOLLOWING -

Q1. Mention three similarities between Tommie Smith and John Carlos.

Both were African – Americans.

Both won medals at the Mexico Olympic Games in 1968.

Stood against racial discrimination which was practiced against the Africans in America.

Q2. Who was Peter Norman? Why did he support Carlos and Smith? What punishment did he get for this?

Peter Norman was an Australian Athlete.

Norman wore a human rights badge on his shirt during the ceremony to show his support to the dissent of two American athletes.

Norman was not included in the Australian team for the next Olympic.

Q 3. How do class and religion overlap with each other in Northern Ireland?

In Northern Ireland the population is divided into two major sects of Christianity – 53% are Protestants and 44% are Roman Catholics. The Catholics are more likely to be poor and suffered a history of discrimination. On the other hand, the Protestants are rich. This resulted in conflicts between the two.

Q4. Explain two advantages and two disadvantages of social divisions in democracy.

Advantages

Political expressions of social divisions is very normal and can be healthy. This allows various disadvantaged and marginal social groups to express their grievances and get the government to attend to these.

Expression of various kinds of social divisions in politics often results in their canceling one another out and thus reducing their intensity.

Disadvantages

In a democracy the different social groups organize themselves to bring equality, social justice and other vested interests. Sometimes their protest results into violence or conflicts.

For the society which has high social divisions, becomes very difficult to ensure integrity and unity.

Q.5- What do you know about origins of social differences?

Social differences are mostly based on accident of birth. Some of the differences are based on our choices.

By Birth- Normally we do not choose to belong to our community, we belong to it simply because we are born into it.

1. What is average income or per capita income? Why do we use averages? What are the limitations of per capita income?

The average income is the total income of the country divided by its total population. We use averages because they are useful for comparing differing quantities of the same category. For example, to compute the per capita income of a country, averages have to be used because there are differences in the incomes of diverse people. Its main limitations are:

A rise in per capital income is due to rise in prices and not due to increase in physical output; it is not a reliable index of economic development.

National income rises but its distribution makes the rich richer and the poor poorer.

It excludes all non-marketed goods and services, even though they may be important for human happiness and better quality of life.

Rise in per capital income may be due to use of modern capital intensive technology in production which may be labour displacing in nature thus adversely affecting the poor masses

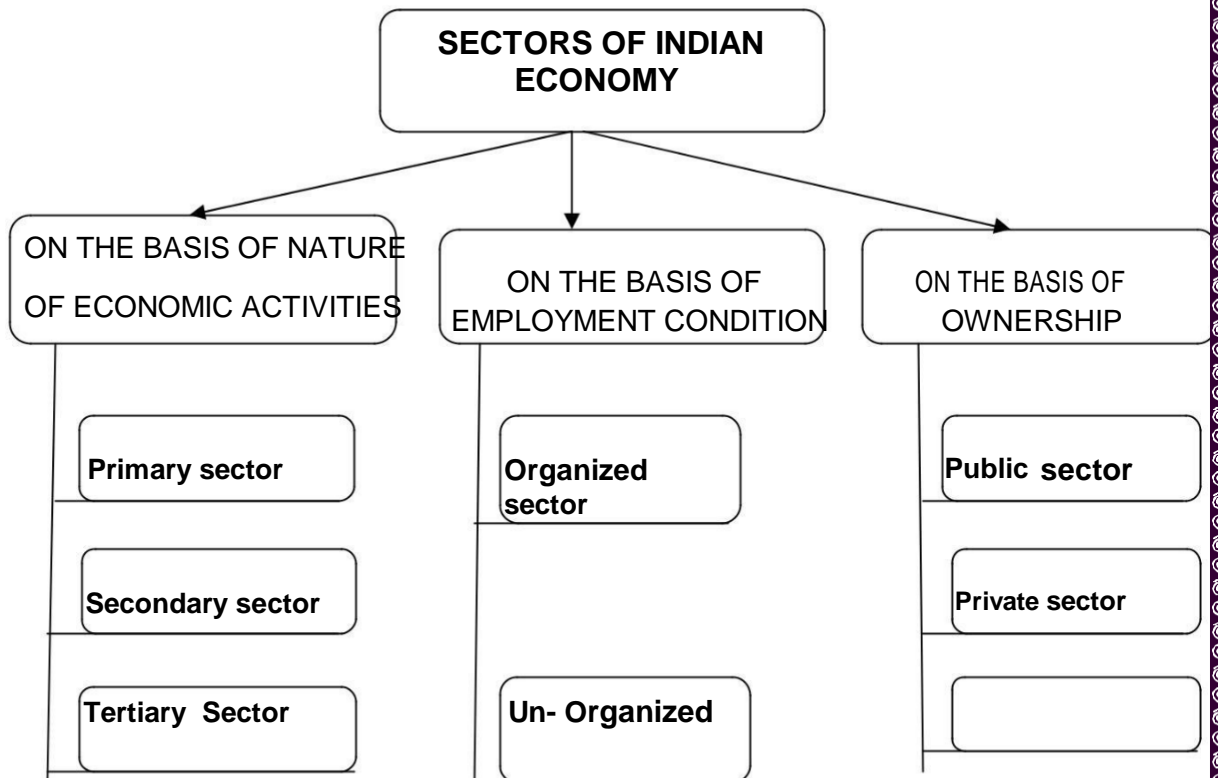

It covers only the economic aspects ignoring peace, health, environment, education, longevity, etc.

2. Who publishes Human Development Report? What are the criteria used to prepare this report?

United Nations Development Programme (UNDP) publishes Annual Human Development Report every year.

Major parameters such as longevity of life (Life Expectancy at birth), levels of literacy and Per capita income are used to measure the development of countries. Life expectancy at birth denotes average expected length of a person at the time of birth. Percapita income is calculated in dollars for all countries so that it can be compared and also because every dollar would buy the same amount of goods and services in any country. World countries are ranked accordingly in to Very High Developed countries, High Developed countries, Medium Developed countries and Low Developed countries.

CHAPTER 2 SECTORS OF INDIAN ECONOMY

Primary sector: When we produce goods by exploiting natural resources, it is an activity of the primary sector.

Secondary sector: Covers activities in which natural products are changed into other forms through way of manufacturing, it is also called as industrial sector.

Tertiary sector: Activities that help in the development of the primary and secondary sectors. Since these activities generate services rather than goods, it is also called the service sector

Gross Domestic Product (GDP): It is the value of all final goods and services produced within a country during a particular year.

Underemployment: This is the situation of where people are apparently working but all of them are made to work less than their potential. This kind of underemployment is hidden in contrast to someone who does not have a job.

Hence, it is also called disguised unemployment.

Mahatma Gandhi National Rural Employment Guarantee Act 2005. (MNREGA 2005):

Under NREGA 2005, all those who are able to, and are in need of, work have been guaranteed 100 days of employment in a year by the government. If the government fails in its duty to provide employment, it will give unemployment allowances to the people.

Organized sector: It covers those enterprises or places of work where the terms of employment are regular and therefore, people have assured work.

The unorganized sector: is characterized by small and scattered units which are largely outside the control of the government. There are rules and regulations but these are not followed.

Public sector: In this sector government owns most of the assets and provides all the services.

Private sector: In this sector ownership of assets and delivery of services is in the hands of private individuals or companies.

Unemployment: It is a situation where the able-bodied persons willing to work but are not able to get a work.

QUESTION AND ANSWERS: (THREE MARK) 1. What are final goods? Write two examples?

Final goods are those goods which are used either for the final consumption or for capital formation. These are not resold. In short, final goods have crossed the boundary line of production, and are ready for the use by the final users. Cloth, air conditioners and refrigerators are examples of final goods.

2 What are basic services? How do they contribute for the growth of Tertiary sector?

In any country, several services such as hospitals, educational institutions, post and telegraph services, police stations, courts, village administrative offices, Municipal Corporation, Defence, transport, banks, insurance companies, etc. are required. These are considered as the basic services. Owing to growing income and demand for such services tertiary sector becoming important.

3. Distinguished between the organized and the unorganized sector.

Organized Sector i) The sector is registered by the government. ii) The terms of employment are regular. iv) The sector is governed by various laws such as the factories act, minimum wages act, etc.

Unorganized sector i) The sector is not registered by the government. ii) The terms of employment are not regular. iii) The sector is not governed by any act.

4. What is meant by enterprise? Classify enterprises on the basis of ownership.

When a person, a group of persons, is engaged in the production or distribution of goods or services which are meant mainly for the purpose of sale, it is called an enterprise. Enterprises can be classified into Private and Public-sector enterprise

5. State any three causes of unemployment?

Insufficient economic development: It is true that under the planned development millions of new jobs were created but the number of job lookers was much more than those jobs. ii) Defective system of education: In our educational system, there is lack of training facilities, lack of vocational and professional guidance. iii) Slow growth of industrialization: Slow growth of industrialization in the country is yet another cause of unemployment in the urban areas.

6. State any three need for protecting the Public sector?

To achieve social justice and equity

To provide basic services at an affordable price

Generating employment opportunities

7. Distinguish between unemployment and underemployment.

Unemployment is a situation where the able-bodied persons willing to work but are not able to get a work.

Underemployment is the situation of where people are apparently working but all of them are made to work less than their potential. This kind of underemployment is hidden in contrast to someone who does not have a job. Hence, it is also called disguised unemployment.

8. Explain the process to calculate GDP.

It is undertaken by the Central Government Ministry after collecting all the data from the different states and the Union Territories.

QUESTION AND ANSWERS: (5 MARK)

1. Distinguish between Public sector and private sector

Public Sector i) It is controlled and managed by the government. ii) The main aim of the sector is public welfare. iii) The sector provides basic facilities like education, health, food and security to the people. iv) For ex, the Indian Railways, Post Office and the BSNL.

Private Sector i) It is controlled and managed by an individual or a group ii) The main aim of the sector is to earn maximum profits. iv) The sector provides consumer goods to the people. v) For ex, Reliance, TISCO, etc

2 What are the objectives of NREGA 2005?

Or

Why do you think NREGA, 2005 is referred to as "Right to Work"?

NREGA, 2005 is a law which is implemented by government of Indian in 200 districts of India.

It is referred to as 'Right to Work' because it guarantees 100days of employment in a year by the government to all those who are able to work. iii) Under this scheme, the gram panchayat after proper verification will register households, and issue job cards. iv). And in case of failure unemployment allowance will be given to them.

3. What are the advantages of working in an organized sector?

Workers in the organized sector enjoy security of employment. ii) They work only a fixed number of hours. If they work more, they have to be paid overtime by the employer.

They also get several other benefits from the employers like paid leave, payment during holidays, provident fund, gratuity, etc. iv) They also get medical benefits and, under the laws, the factory manager has to ensure facilities like drinking water and a safe working environment.

4. What are the disadvantages of working in an organized sector? Or

Why is it necessary to give protection and support to the unorganized sector workers? Explain.

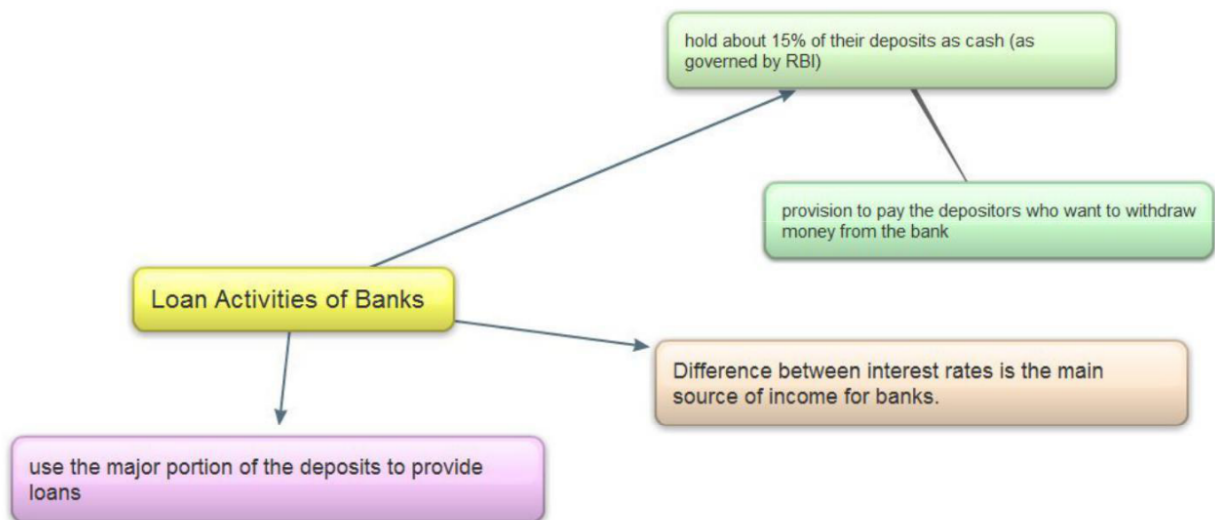

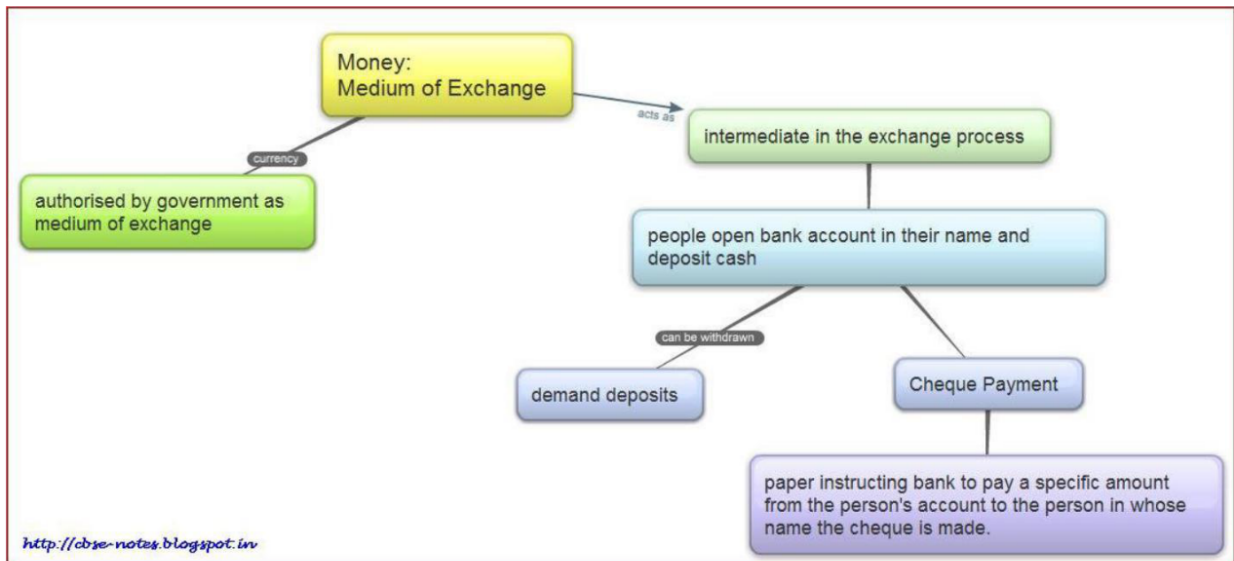

The unorganized sector is characterized by small and scattered units which are largely outside the control of the government. Workers working in an unorganized sector get fewer wages. ii) There is no provision of overtime, paid leave, holidays, leave due to sickness, etc. iii) Employment is subject to high degree of insecurity.

5. What are the measures to reduce unemployment?

Rural works programme: This program aims at construction of civil works of permanent nature in rural areas. ii) Integrated Dry land agricultural development: Under

This scheme, permanent works like soil conservation, development of land water harvesting are undertaken. iii) National Rural Employment Program: This program aims at creating community assets for strengthening rural infrastructure – drinking water wells, community irrigation wells, village tanks, rural roads and schools. iv) Rural Landless Employment Guarantee Program: It aims at generating gainful employment, creating productive assets in rural areas and improving the overall quality of rural life.

CHAPTER 3 MONEY AND CREDIT

- Money: Anything chosen by common consent as a medium of exchange.
- Demand Deposits: Deposits in the bank account that can be withdrawn on demand.
- Cheque: Paper instructing the bank to pay a specific amount from a person's account to the person in whose name the cheque is drawn.
- Reserve Bank of India: It is the central bank of India which controls the monetary policy of the country. It also control and supervises all the commercial banks in India.

Credit: The activity of borrowing and lending money between two parties.

Collateral: Collateral is an asset that the borrower owns (such as land, building, vehicle, livestock, deposits with banks) and uses this as a guarantee to a lender until the loan is repaid. Property such as land titles, deposits with banks, livestock are some common examples of collateral used for borrowing. Terms of Credit: Interest rate, collateral and documentation requirement, and the mode of repayment together comprise what is called the terms of credit. The terms of credit vary substantially from one credit arrangement to another. They may vary depending on the nature of the lender and the borrower. Formal credit: Loans provided by institutions under the direct supervision of RBI. Main sources are Banks, Cooperative Societies and Financial Institutions

Informal credit: Loans provided by individual under no supervision, like money lenders, Friends & Relatives, Traders etc.

Self Help Groups (SHG): These are groups generally formed in villages where money is collected from the members and given as loan to the member at a nominal rate of interest.

QUESTION AND ANSWERS: (THREE MARK)

Self Help Groups support has brought about a revolutionary change in the rural sector. Which values according to you is it able to support. (Value based question)

- Women empowerment
- Team work
- Self sufficiency
- Eradication of poverty

What are the limitations of the barter system?

- Lack of double coincident
- Lack of divisibility
- Lack of measure of value.
- Problem of store of value.

3. What are the advantages of depositing money in the banks?

- It is the safer place to keep money as compared to the house or a working place.
- People can earn interest on the deposited money.
- People have the provisions to withdrawn the money as and when they require.
- People can also make payment through cheques.

4. What is collateral?

- Collateral is an asset that the borrower owns (such as land, building, vehicles, livestock, deposits with banks) and uses this as a guarantee to a lender until the loan is repaid.
- If the borrower fails to repay the loan, the lender has the right to sell the asset or the collateral to obtain the payment.
- Property such as land, livestock etc are some of the common examples of collateral used for borrowing.

5. What are the functions of money?

- Money has solved the problem of barter system.
- Acts as medium of exchange
- Serves as a store of value.
- Serves as a measure of value.

QUESTION AND ANSWERS: (5 MARK)

In what ways does the Reserve Bank of India supervise the functioning of banks? Why is this necessary?

- It ensures that the banks actually keep a certain % of their deposits as cash balance/cash reserve with the Central bank.
- It observes that banks give loans to small activators, small scale industries, small borrowers also and not become a profit making business.
- Report has to be submitted periodically by the banks to RBI containing details such as how much they have lent, to whom and at what rate of interest etc.
- Central Banks is the lender of the last resort. Whenever banks are short of funds, they can take loans from the Central Banks. Thus it is source of great strength to the banking system.
- It acts as a bank of central clearance settlements and transfers.

2. Explain the functions of commercial banks.

- Accepting deposits: Banks keep only a small proportion of their deposits as cash with themselves. This is kept as a provision to pay the depositors who might come to withdraw money from the bank.
- Providing loans: Banks use the major portion of the deposits to extend loans. Banks make use of the deposits to meet the loan requirements of the people.
- Transfer of funds: In this way, banks mediate between the depositor and borrowers.
- Credit creation: provides loan from people's deposits. The borrower does not withdraw the whole loan amount instead deposits in the same bank. It enables the bank to provide further loan.
- Agency functions: In modern times bank also acts as an agent of the customer.

3. Distinguish between formal and informal credit sources.

Formal Sector

- These resources work under the supervision of the Reserve Bank of India (RBI).
- The rate of interest is very low.
- Commercial banks, cooperative societies etc. are the main sources of formal credit.

Informal Sector

- These do not work under any government organization.
- The rate of interest is very high.
- Relatives, money lenders and landlords are the main sources of informal credit.

4. "Most of the poor households are still dependent on informal sources of credit". Explain.

- Banks are not present everywhere in rural India, where as the informal sources are easily available in all the villages.

- Getting a loan from the bank is much more difficult than taking a loan from the informal resources because bank loans require proper documents and collateral. Most of the poor people don't possess anything to offer as collateral.
- Moneylenders provide loan to the poor people without any collateral.
- The formal sources provide loan only for productive purposes, whereas the informal sources provide credit for productive and non-productive purposes.
- The method of business of the formal source is very complex, whereas the informal resources have a very simple way of business.

Cheap and affordable credit is crucial for the countries development. Highlight the role of loans in reference to India. (5)

- High cost of borrowing leads to a major share of profits to be paid as interest.
- At time, higher rates leads to more interests than the principal.
- Debt trap discourages new entrants
- More loans given by banks and co-operatives
- Promotion of small scale industries.

What are demand deposits? What are their advantages? Why are demand deposits considered as money?

The deposits in the bank accounts which can be withdrawn on demand are known as demand deposits.

People earn interest on the demand deposits.

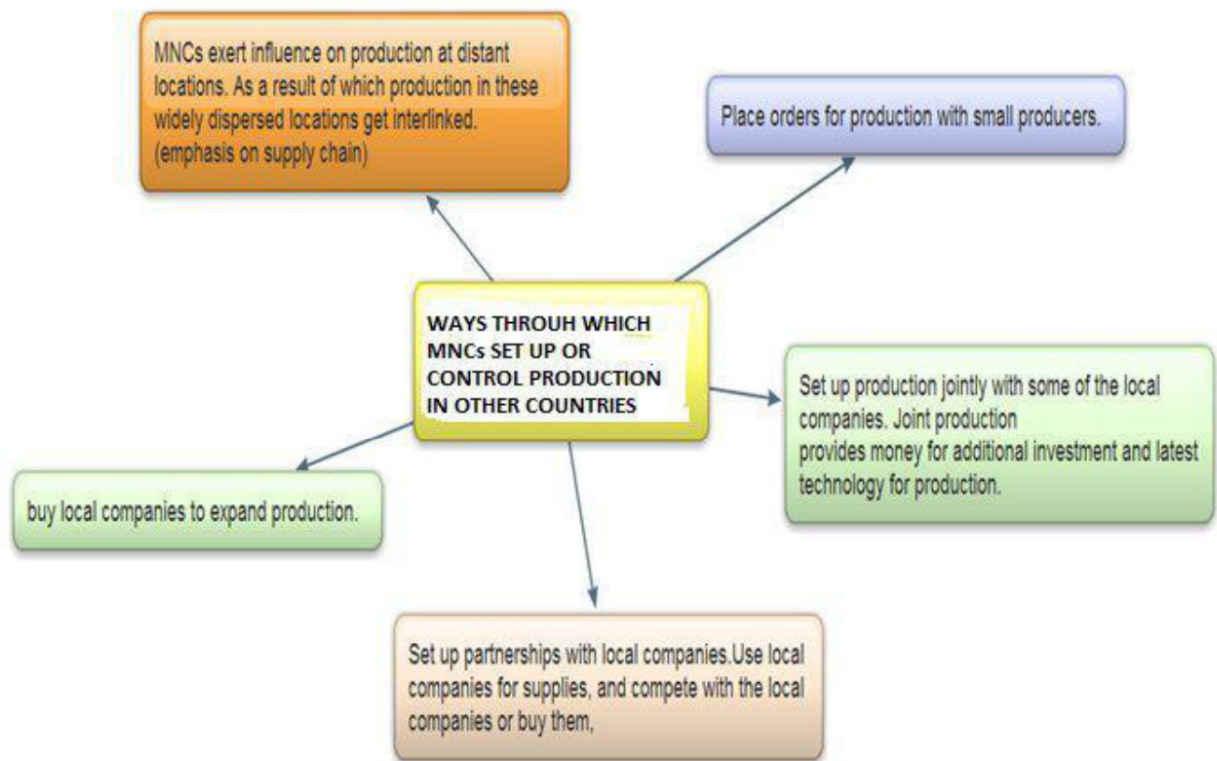

The depositor can make the payment through a cheque. It is considered as money because

They can be used as a medium of exchange.

They help in settling payment without the use of cash.

CHAPTER 4 GLOBALISATION AND THE INDIAN ECONOMY

Globalization refers to the integration of the domestic economy with the economies of the world.

Foreign Investment is investment made by MNCs.

Liberalization means the removal of barriers and restrictions set by the government on foreign trade.

Governments use trade barriers to increase or decrease (regulate) foreign trade to protect the domestic industries from foreign competition. Ex. Tax on imports. Around 1991, government India adopted the policy of liberalization

World Trade Organization (WTO) was started at the initiative of the developed countries. Its main objective is to liberalize international trade.

Privatization means transfer of ownership of property from public sector to private sector.

Business Process Outsourcing (BPO) is the contracting of non-primary business activities and functions to a third party service provider.

Multi-lateral Agreement is agreement entered by group of countries.

Mixed economy is a system in which private and public sector work together.

Economic Reforms or New Economic Policy is policy adopted by the Government of India since July 1991. Its key features are Liberalization, Privatization and Globalization (LPG).

QUESTION AND ANSWERS: (ONE MARK)

Name the organization lay emphasize Liberalization of foreign trade and Foreign Investment.

World Trade Organization

What do you mean by FDI?

Foreign Direct Investment.

What are SEZ? Special

Economic Zone

Name two Indian Companies which are also known as MNC.

TATA Motors, Bajaj

What is the most common route for investments by MNCs in countries around the world?

Buy existing local companies

QUESTION AND ANSWERS: (THREE MARK)

1. What are the advantages of foreign trade?

Foreign trade gives opportunity to reach buyers in domestic and international markets. Choice of the consumers expands manifolds

The process of similar goods in the markets tends to become equal

2. What is globalisation?

Integrating a country's economy with world's economy

Foreign producers can sell their goods and services in India and Indian producers can also sell goods and services in other country.

Inter-dependence of different countries of the world economically

3. What are the factors that attract MNCs to set up factories in third world countries? For better prospectus and profits.

Favourable government policies

Availability of highly skilled man power easily and cheaply.

4. How foreign trade leads to integration of markets?

Trade between countries enables them to extend the boundaries of the market.

Foreign trade enables countries of the world to consume goods that they are not able to produce

Foreign trade helps equalizing prices over different parts of the world

5. What is Tax Barrier? How it helps in regulating the foreign trade?

In some cases it may be necessary to protect local manufacturers from imports.

Countries set up Tax Barriers to protect their National Interest

They may be in the form of high import duty and quota restrictions.

6."Globalisation has led to the worsening of the working conditions of the labourers". Comment.

globalisation and open competition leads to insecure working conditions. The workers do not get a fair share of profits which the big companies make. Workers are exploited by the big companies as they are not given any in- job benefits.

7. How does liberalization contribute to the expansion of markets in India?

As a result of liberalization foreign companies are able to set up their offices and markets in India

The Government of India established many Special Economic Zones where all sorts of facilities made available to foreign companies.

Foreign companies were allowed flexibility in labour laws so that they could employ workers for short period.

8. How has technology stimulated the globalization process?

Improvement in transportation technology has made faster delivery of goods across long distances at lower rates.

Improvement in IT Sector

Invention of Computers, Internet, Mobile Phones, and Fax etc. has made contacts with people around the world quite easy.

QUESTION AND ANSWERS: (FIVE MARK)

1. How do MNCs interlink production across countries?

MNC's set up their production units in those areas which are quite close to the markets.

It sets up production jointly with some of the local companies of the selected countries

Sometimes large MNCs place orders for production with small producers and provide them money for additional investments.

Sometimes MNCs buy local companies and then expand their production

Provide latest technology for better and speedy production

2. What are the factors that have enabled globalisation?

Rapid improvement in technology

Development in information and communication technology.

Liberalization of foreign investment policies of the governments. Pressure from international organizations such as

3. WTO Explain any five positive impacts of globalization.

Globalisation and greater competition among producers have been of advantage to consumers, in terms of wider choice, improved quality and lower prices.

Enormous increase in foreign investment through MNCs.

Several of the top Indian companies have been able to benefit from globalization as they got newer technology and collaboration with foreign companies.

Some large companies emerged as MNCs Ex. Tata Motors, Infosys.

New opportunities are created for companies providing services especially those involving IT.

It has enabled the third world countries to get better technology at a cheaper rate

3. Explain any five negative impacts of globalisation.

Globalisation has led to widening of income inequalities among various countries.

It has widened the gap between the rich and the poor within the countries.

It has worsened the working condition of the labourers, especially in the unorganized Sectors.

The benefits of globalization were not equally distributed among the people, and generally the upper class, in terms of income and education, only got benefited.

Agricultural sector has been hard hit by the policies of globalization.

5. What measures can be taken by the government to make globalization fair?

The policies of the government must focus on protecting the interests of all sections of the people.

Government should ensure that labour laws are properly implemented and workers get their rights.

Government should support small industries to face competitions.

In certain situations, trade and investment barriers should be imposed.

The government should negotiate at the WTO for fairer rules.

6. What were the main reasons for imposing barriers in India after independence?

The term liberalization means the removal of barriers and restrictions set by the government on foreign trade.

Governments use trade barriers to increase or decrease (regulate) foreign trade.

Trade barriers were used to protect the domestic industries from foreign competition. E.g. Tax on imports.

It was considered necessary to protect producers within the country from foreign competition.

The competition from foreign competitors could have crippled the new born industries in India.

7. Critically examine the functioning of WTO

The operations of the WTO will lead to undue interference into the internal affairs of different countries.

Domination of developed countries.

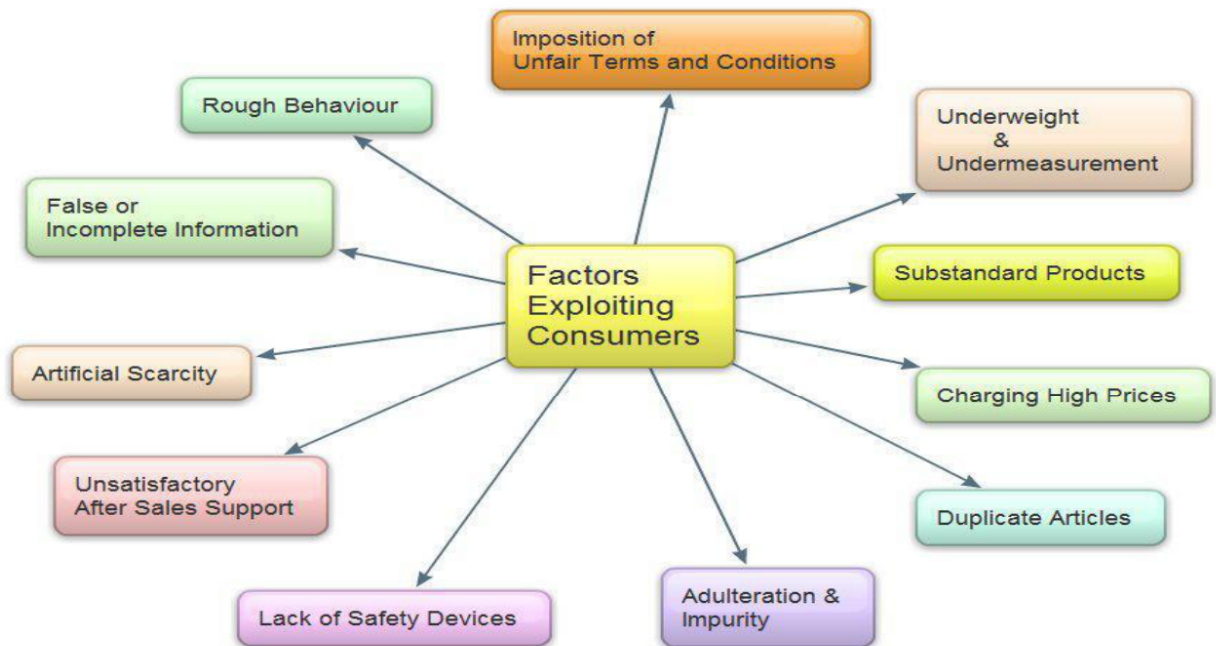

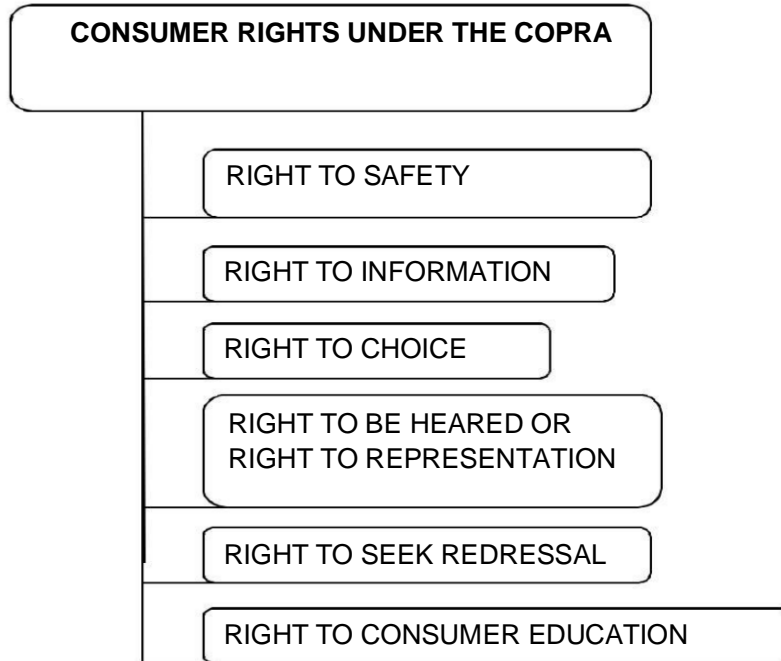

Serves the interests of the developed nations.

Access to markets of developed countries by developing countries is negligible.

WTO rules forced the developing countries to remove trade barriers whereas many developed countries unfairly retained trade barriers.

CHAPTER.5

CONSUMER RIGHTS [Only project work not to be tested in Periodic Test & Board Exam. too]

Consumer is a person who buys and uses a good or service from the market after making a payment.

Consumer International: An international umbrella organization to over 240 members Organizations from over 220 countries.

COPRA: The consumer Protection Act enacted by the government of India on 24th December 1986.

Codex Alimentarius Commission: It was created in 1963 by food and agricultural organization.

Right to information act 2005: This act gives rights to the citizen to have information about the government departments, their policies practices and procedures.

ISI Mark: a certification mark for industrial products in India developed by the Bureau of Indian Standards.

AGMARK: A certification mark employed on agricultural products in India by the directorate of Marketing and Inspection

Hallmark: An official mark struck on items made of precious metals like gold silver platinum etc.

Adulteration: Mixing unwanted substances in foods.

Consumer Forum: The consumer movement in India has led to the formation of various organizations locally known as consumer forums or consumer protection councils. They guide consumers on how to file cases in the consumer court.

QUESTION AND ANSWERS: (3 MARK)

1.What are the different ways of exploitation of consumers in the market?

- Higher price
- Quality lapse
- Underweight & under measurement

2. What are the reasons for the emergence of consumer movement in India? The dissatisfaction of the consumers regarding the market practices

Increasing awareness of the people

3. Explain the three-tier quasi-judicial machinery to redress the grievances of the consumers?

District courts. The district level court deals with cases involving claims up to Rs.20 lakh.

Redressal forums at State level. The state level court deals with cases between Rs. 20 lakh and Rs.1 crore

Redressal forums at National level. The national level court dealt with cases which involve claims exceeding Rs.1 crore.

4. What are the certifications for Quality assurance? ISI Mark

AGMARK

HALLMARK

5.How to make a complaint to the District forum.

District courts deals with cases involving claims up to 20 lakhs

No need for lawyers

Application can be made on plain paper

How to make a complaint to the District forum.

- District courts deals with cases involving claims up to 20 lakhs
- No need for lawyers
- Application can be made on plain paper.

7.What is the difference between consumer protection council and consumer court?

- The consumer protection council promotes and protects the various rights of the consumer.
- The consumer court is made to hear the cases regarding a consumer complaint.
- Consumer protection council is an advisory body, while consumer court is a quasi-judiciary body.

QUESTION AND ANSWERS: (5 MARK)

8.What factors gave birth to consumer movement in India.

- The dissatisfaction of the consumers regarding the market practices
- The gradual withdrawal of the government from production fields after the introduction of New Economic Policy.
- Increasing awareness of the people
- Increasing unfair trade practices
- Emergences of foreign companies

9.What are the rights of the consumers?

- Right to be informed
- Right to choose
- Right to safety
- Right to seek redressal
- Right to represent
- Right to consumer education

10.What are the ways by which consumers get exploited in the market?

- Higher price
- Quality lapse
- Underweight & under measurement
- False information and promises
- Poor after sale service
- Rude behaviour
- Inadequate safety measures
- Market malpractices such as adulteration black marketing, duplicate articles etc.

11.What are the reasons for exploitation of consumers?

- Lack of awareness
- Lack of information about goods & markets
- Limited supplies and competitions.

- Lack of government support to consumers
- Lack of interest on the part of the consumers in responding
- Inadequacy of consumer movement

12. What are the salient features of COPRA 1986?

It applies to all goods and services.

It covers all the sections whether Private, Public or Cooperative.

It offers various rights to the consumers.

It establishes consumer protection councils at the central and state and district levels to promote and protect the right of the consumers.

It provides separate three- tier quasi-judicial machinery at the national state and district levels. at the national level it is known as National Consumer Court (Commission) at the state level, it is known as State consumer court (commission) and at the District level ,it is called District forum.

- Provisions of the Act are compensatory in nature

13. Critically examine the progress of consumer movement in India?

- Started out of frustration of consumers against the unfair practices by the sellers
- Food shortages
- Black-marketing
- Formation of consumers group and exerting pressure on business firms and governments to correct the business activities.
- Passing of the Consumer Protection Act in 1986

14. What are the duties of the Consumer?

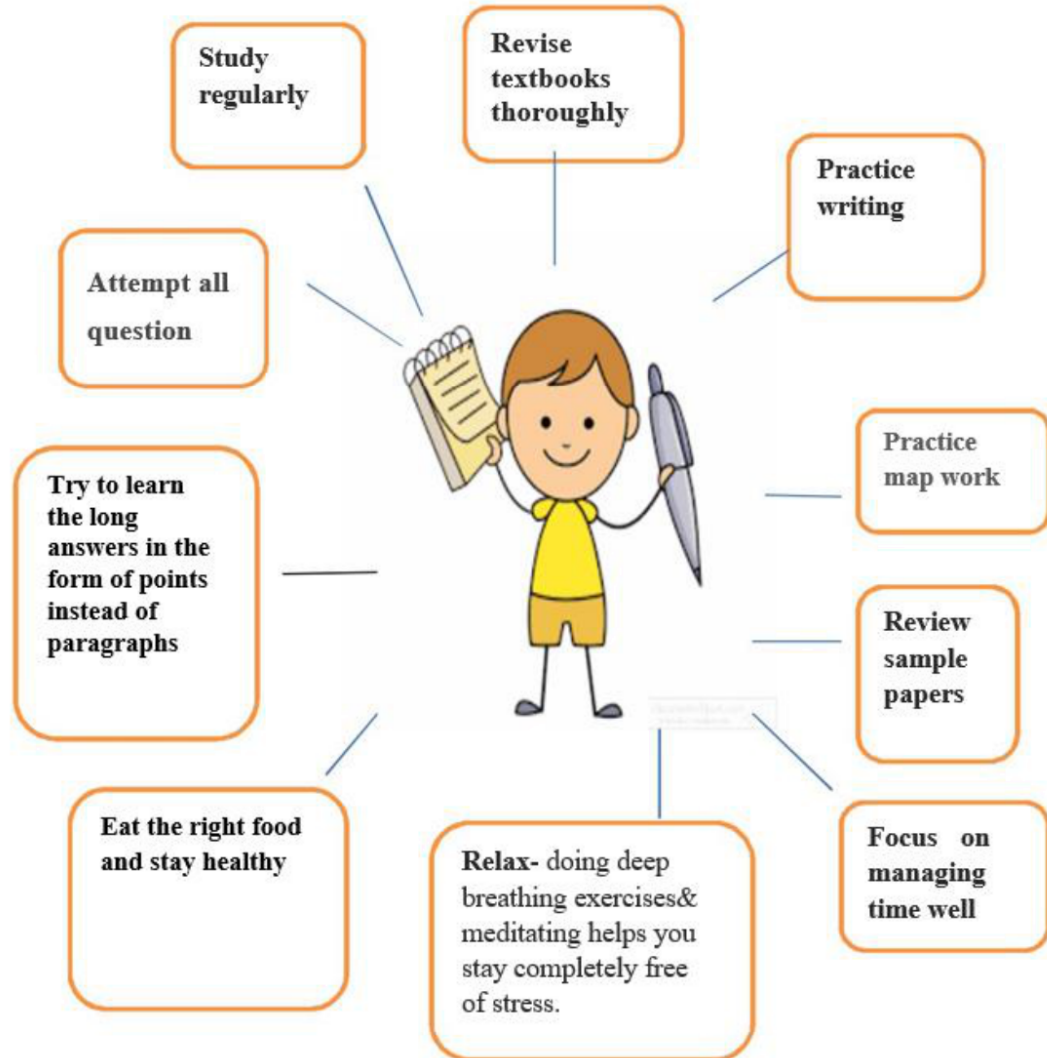

- Be alert about the price and quality of goods and services.
- To assert and act to ensure that he gets a fair deal.
- To organize together to promote the interest of the consumers.
- To purchase quality marked goods such as ISI, AGMARK etc.
- To insist a cash memo after every purchase.
- To make complaints for genuine grievances

15. What is the need for standardization of products?

- Every producer is liable to be prosecuted if he does not print the sale price of an article on it
- For certain articles ISI mark is essential to ensure quality and originality.
- As far as food items are concerned it is essential to indicate weight on each packet
- Date of manufacture and date of expiry is a must on medicines

Government departments like Food and Supply, Drug Control, Weight and Measure etc conduct raids from time to time so that consumers are not cheated.

CHAPTER -2

FORREST AND WILD LIFE [ONLY TO BE TESTED IN PERIODIC TEST NOT IN BOARD EXAM.]

Topics in the Chapter

- Introduction
- Flora and Fauna in India
- Classification of Species
- Causes of depletion of the flora and fauna
- Conservation of Forest and Wildlife in India
- Types and Distribution of Forest and Wildlife Resources
- Community and Conservation

Introduction

- Our earth is home for millions of living beings, starting from micro-organisms and bacteria, lichens to banyan trees, elephants and blue whales.

Flora and Fauna in India

- India is one of the world's richest countries in terms of its vast array of biological diversity, and has nearly 8 per cent of the total number of species in the world (estimated to be 1.6 million).
- At least 10 percent of India's recorded wild flora and 20 per cent of its mammals are on the threatened list.
→ Many are categorised as 'critical', that is on the verge of extinction like the cheetah, pink-headed duck etc.

Classification of Species

- The International Union for Conservation of Nature and Natural Resources (IUCN) has classified plants and animals in order of existence:
→ Normal Species: Species whose population levels are considered to be normal for their survival, such as cattle, sal, pine, rodents, etc.
→ Endangered Species: These are species which are in danger of extinction. For example, black buck, crocodile, Indian wild ass etc.
→ Vulnerable Species: These are species whose population has declined to levels from where it is likely to move into the endangered category in the near future if the negative factors continue to operate. For examples, blue sheep, Asiatic elephant, Gangetic dolphin, etc.
→ Rare Species: Species with small population may move into the endangered or vulnerable category if the negative factors affecting them continue to operate. For example, Himalayan brown bear, wild Asiatic buffalo, desert fox and hornbill, etc.

→ Endemic Species: These are species which are only found in some particular areas usually isolated by natural or geographical barriers. For example, Andaman teal, Nicobar pigeon, Andaman wild pig, mithun in Arunchal Pradesh.

→ Extinct Species: These are species which are not found after searches of known or likely areas where they may occur. For example, Asiatic cheetah, pink head duck etc.

Causes of depletion of the flora and fauna

- Human beings transformed nature into a resource obtaining directly and indirectly from the forests and wildlife such as wood, barks, leaves, rubber, medicines, dyes, food, fuel, fodder, manure, etc. which depleted our forests and wildlife.
- The various factors that cause depletion of the flora and fauna are:
→ Large-scale development projects
→ Shifting cultivation
→ Mining
→ Grazing and fuel-wood collection
→ Over-population

- Mining
- Grazing and fuel-wood collection
- Over-population

• Factors responsible for decline in India's biodiversity:

- Habitat destruction
- Hunting
- Poaching
- Over-exploitation
- Environmental pollution
- Poisoning
- Forest fires

Conservation of Forest and Wildlife in India

- Conservation preserves the ecological diversity and our life support systems – water, air and soil.
- Due to conservationist's demand, The Indian Wildlife (Protection) Act was implemented in 1972, with various provisions for protecting habitats.
 - The aim of the programme was protecting the remaining population of certain endangered species by banning hunting, giving legal protection to their habitats, and restricting trade in wildlife.
 - The central and many state governments established national parks and wildlife sanctuaries.
 - The central government also announced several projects for protecting specific animals, which were gravely threatened, including the tiger, the one-horned rhinoceros and others.
- Project Tiger was also launched by the Government of India in the year 1973 to save the endangered species of tiger in the country.
- Under Wildlife Act of 1980 and 1986, several hundred butterflies, moths, beetles, and one dragonfly have been added to the list of protected species.

Types and Distribution of Forest and Wildlife Resources

- In India, much of its forest and wildlife resources are either owned or managed by the government through the Forest Department or other government departments.
- The forests are classified under the following categories:
 - Reserved Forests: These forests are regarded as the most valuable as far as the conservation of forest and wildlife resources are concerned. It covers half of the total forest land.
 - Protected Forests: This forest land are protected from any further depletion. Almost one-third of the total forest area is protected forest.
 - Unclassed Forests: These are other forests and wastelands belonging to both government and private individuals and communities.

Community and Conservation

- The forests are also home to some of the traditional communities.
 - Local communities are struggling to conserve these habitats along with government officials, to secure their long-term livelihood.
- In Sariska Tiger Reserve, Rajasthan, villagers have fought against mining by citing the Wildlife Protection Act.

- The famous Chipko movement in the Himalayas has successfully resisted deforestation in several areas
 - Also shown that community afforestation with indigenous species can be enormously successful.
- Farmers and citizen's groups like the Beej Bachao Andolan in Tehri and Navdanya have shown that adequate levels of diversified crop production without the use of synthetic chemicals are possible and economically viable.
- Joint forest management (JFM) programme introduced in 1988 in the state of Odisha shown good example for involving local communities in the management and restoration of degraded forests.

(i) What is biodiversity? Why is biodiversity important for human lives?

(ii) How have human activities affected the depletion of flora and fauna? Explain.

Answer

(i) Biodiversity is immensely rich in wildlife and cultivated species, diverse in form and function, but closely integrated in a system through multiple networks of interdependencies.

It is important for human lives because the human beings, along with the biodiversity, form a complete web of ecological system in which we are only a part and are very much dependent on this system for our own existence.

(ii) Several human activities have affected the depletion of flora and fauna and has led to decline in India's biodiversity. The main factors responsible for this damage are:

- Habitat destruction, mainly due to overpopulation leading to expansion of agriculture, mining, industrialisation and urbanisation and consequent wiping out of large forest areas.
- Hunting and poaching and illegal trade of animal skin, tusk, bones, teeth, horns, etc have lead many speices to the verge of extinction.
- Environmental pollution, poisoning of water bodies due to discharge of industrial effluents, chemicals, wastes, etc. leading to animal deaths.
- Forest fires often induced by shifting cultivation wiping out valuable forests and wildlife.
- Large scale development projects and destruction of forests.
- Grazing and fuel wood collection.
- Over-exploitation of forest products

Other important causes of environmental destruction are unequal access, inequitable consumption of forest resources and differential sharina of responsibility for environmental well-beina.

20. A barrier to trade is a government imposed restraint on the flow of international goods or services. The most common barrier to trade is a tariff—a tax on imports. Tariffs raise the price of imported goods relative to domestic goods (goods produced at home).
21. There was no other war earlier like First World War because of the following reasons.
 - This was the only war in the modern world which involved almost all countries in one or the other way.
 - In this war, the weapons used had a deadly potential to kill and destroy whatever came in their way.
 - There was an immense loss of young and productive population.

- Economies of the countries round the world crashed beyond the level of recovery. The winners were the losers themselves.

Or

Seasonality of employment affected the lives of the Indian workers during the 18th century in the following ways.

- Seasonality of work meant prolonged period of unemployment. Workers were forced again on streets.
- Many went back to their villages.
- Others looked for odd jobs in the cities.

22. Efficient means of transport are pre-requisites for fast development because:

- The movement of goods and services from the supply location to demand locations necessitates the need for transport. It widens the market for goods.
- It allows distant and remote areas to be linked with urban and developed, regions.
- The development and improvement of transport have made delivery of goods faster across long distances and thus reduced cost.
- Immediate relief during war, natural calamity, famine or flood can be easily accessed through efficient means of transport.

23. The power shared among the different levels of the government is known as the vertical distribution of power. It involves higher and lower levels of government. These levels are the Union government, the State government and the Local government. In India, the Union government is at the highest level. The government at the provincial or regional level is the State government. The Indian Constitution has further laid down the provision of distribution of power. This division of power is further extended to the levels of the government lower than the state governments. They are also called Municipal Corporations and the Municipalities in urban areas and Panchayati Raj in rural areas.

Each level of the government exercises its power. There is no specification of the system of checks and balances. Each level has its own powers and areas of jurisdiction and no level can interfere in each other's functioning. Such an arrangement ensures deepening of democracy.

24. The following are the two measures to check casteism in India.

- Spread of education: Education upgrades one's level of thinking and helps in eradicating the misconceptions of one's mind. All possible steps should be taken to educate the masses.
- Economic equality: Inequality in the economic life creates the feeling of superiority and inferiority among the members of different caste groups. Steps need to be taken to maintain economic equality of all castes.
- Abolition of Reservation Policy: Reservation in government job, education and other sectors creates conflicting attitude among the members of two different castes. When the people of higher castes having adequate educational qualification are deprived of all facilities, they revolt against the lower caste people.
- Political reforms: Political leaders and parties based on caste should be banned from the political participation.

- The name and aim of educational institutions referring to castes need to be given up.
25. A national political party is a party that is present in several or all units of the federation. In other words, it is a country-wide party. It has its units in various states. By and large, all these units follow the same policies. The following are the conditions required for a party to become a national party.
- A party has to secure at least six per cent of total votes polled in the Lok Sabha elections or Assembly elections in four states.
 - It has to win at least four seats in the Lok Sabha to be recognised as a national party
26. It is true to say that people have conflicting developmental goals. What may be the development for one may not be for the other. Different people have different interests, life situations and state of mind. They visualize things, actions, etc. according to their level of understanding.
- For example, the construction of a flyover to reduce the congestion and traffic jams may be a development goal especially for the daily commuters. But for the construction of the flyover, surrounding houses, shops, etc. need to be demolished which may not be like by the occupants of these shops and houses. This may not be a development goal for them.
27. The agricultural sector (Primary) is the largest employer in India. Nearly 51% of the population is engaged in this section in one way or the other. However, its share in the national GDP is very less because of the following reasons.
- The average size of the land holdings is very low which results in low productivity per holder.
 - Less use of modern technology and knowhow among the farmers to increase crop productivity.
 - The systems of providing financing and marketing facilities have been insufficient since independence. The farmers are not able to get benefits from the loan facilities and access to large markets.
 - Absence of alternate income generating activities in rural areas give rise to disguised unemployment where efficient labour force is not used to its optimum.
28. Transactions are made in money because a person holding money can easily exchange it for any commodity or a service. It solves the problem of double coincidence of wants by acting as a medium of exchange.
- For example, a shoe manufacturer wants to sell shoes in the market and wants to buy rice. Under barter system, both parties selling shoes and rice have to agree to buy and sell each other's commodities and this creates a problem which is referred to as double coincidence of wants. This problem is overcome by the introduction of money. Now, the shoe manufacturer will sell the shoes for money and with that money he can buy rice.
29. The measures and practices introduced by the French revolutionaries to create a sense of collective identity among the French people were as follows.
- The idea of la patrie (the fatherland) and le citoyen (the citizen) emphasised the idea of united people enjoying equal rights under a constitution.
 - A new French flag, the tricolour, was chosen to replace the former royal standard.
 - The Estates General was elected by the active citizens and renamed the National Assembly.

- New hymns were composed, oaths taken and martyrs commemorated in the name of nation.
- Regional dialects were discouraged and French, as it was spoken and written in Paris, became the common language of the nation.
- A centralised administrative system was put in practice and it formulated uniform laws for all citizens within its territory.
- Internal customs duties and dues were abolished and a uniform system of weights and measures was adopted.

30. Gandhi decided to launch a nationwide Satyagraha against the proposed Rowlatt Act of 1919 because of the following reasons.

- In 1919, Rowlett Act was hurriedly passed by the Imperial Legislative Council.
- Indian members unitedly opposed it.
- The Act gave the government enormous powers to repress political activities and allowed detention of political prisoners without trial for two years.
- The Act deprived the Indians of their civil rights.
It was organised in the following ways:
- Gandhi wanted a non-violent civil disobedience against such unjust laws.
- It started with hartal on 6th April 1919.
- Rallies were organised in various cities in India.
- Workers in the railway work shop went on strike.
- Shops were closed down in protest.

31. The importance of petroleum is as follows:

- It provides fuel for heating and lighting.
- It provides lubricants for machinery and raw materials for many manufacturing industries.
- Petroleum refineries act as a 'nodal industry' for synthetic textiles, fertiliser and chemical industries. (any two)

The occurrence of petroleum in India:

- Most of the petroleum in India is found in anticlines and fault traps in the rock formations of the tertiary age.
- In regions of folding, anticlines or domes, it occurs where oil is trapped in the crest of the upfold.
- The oil-bearing layer is porous limestone or sandstone through which oil may flow. The oil is prevented from sinking or rising by intervening non-porous layers.

32. The economic strength of a country is measured by the development of manufacturing industries.

- Industries create a variety of goods and thus reduce the dependence of people on agriculture and contributes to modernisation of agriculture.
- Industrial development helps to reduce unemployment and poverty levels by initiating income and high standard of living.

- Export of manufactured goods add value to the economy. It expands trade and commerce and brings to foreign exchange.
- Industries utilise primary materials and convert them into articles of utility, thus adding value to the raw materials.
- Countries that transform their raw material into a wide variety of furnished goods of higher value are prosperous. India's prosperity lies in diversifying its manufacturing industries

33. Sri Lanka and Belgium are both democratic countries yet have a very diverse social set-up. Both the countries have adopted very different approaches when it comes to power sharing.

- Belgium produced an ideal example of democratic system. It adopted the policy of accommodation of social and ethnics divisions. On the other hand, Sri Lanka also adopted democratic system but followed majoritarian policies.
- Under the Belgium model of democracy, power was shared among two ethnic groups. Sri Lanka favoured the interests of the majority Sinhala community.
- In Belgium, both the groups had equal share in working of government but in Sri Lanka the minority community was isolated.
- To maintain political stability and unity, equal representation was provided to both the groups. Apart from that, community government of both the ethnic groups also existed at the local level. Sri Lanka, however, had no such arrangement.
- Belgium constitution was amended four times before arriving at a final draft to prevent civil strife. In Sri Lanka, majoritarianism led to civil war for twenty long years.
