Sub: Effective implementation of "Public Procurement Policy for Micro & Small Enterprises (MSEs) Order 2012"

Dear Sir,

This has reference to a letter No. CDSAPL/KVS/2019-20/12021 dated 26.11.2019 (copy attached) addressed to your good self regarding non-exemption EMD and cost of tender documents in respect of M/s Chase Detective & Security Agency Pvt. Ltd, New Delhi.

Keeping in view the importance and contribution of Micro & Small Enterprises Sector in the national economy, their promotion & growth is a national priority. Marketing is a crucial area where institutional support is required by MSE's. The Government of India, Ministry of Micro Small & Medium Enterprises, New Delhi vide their Gazette Notification dated 26.03.2012 has notified that Micro & Small Enterprises are eligible to get the following benefits under "Public Procurement Policy for Micro & Small Enterprises (MSEs) Order 2012" (copy enclosed):-

1. Issue of the Tender Sets free of cost,
2. Exemption from payment of Earnest Money Deposit (EMD),
3. In tenders, participating MSEs quoting price within price band of L1+15 per cent shall also be allowed to supply a portion up to 25% of requirement by bringing down their price to L1 Price where L1 is non MSEs.
4. Every Central Ministries/Departments/PSUs shall set an annual goal of minimum 25 per cent of the total annual purchases of the products or services produced or rendered by MSEs. Out of annual requirement of at least 25% procurement from MSEs, 4% is earmarked for units owned by Schedule Caste /Schedule Tribes and 3% reservation for women owned MSEs.
5. 358 Items are reserved for exclusive purchase from MSEs.

It is pertinent to mention here that the Micro & Small Enterprise Sector constitute the most important integral of Indian economy as this sector contributes about 40% of GDP, employment generation and equal contribution towards country's exports.
